TAC Road Safety Round July 21st – 23rd

Now is the time for clubs to be promoting the TAC Road Safety Round which will occur across the weekend of July 21-23.

Each year there are far too many deaths on our roads and this should come as a timely reminder to be safer on our roads. Our clubs, friends and families play an important role in stopping poor behaviour on our roads, whether that be taking the keys off your friend who has had a few drinks or telling your loved one to get off their phone whilst driving.

RDFNL Junior Interleague

RDFNL Junior Interleague wrapped up last weekend with our Under 18's Girls playing against Yarra Juniors at Ford Park. Unfortunately we didn't get the result on the scoreboard, however all players got an opportunity to show off their skills at a higher level.

Congratulations to Maisy Crowther from Woodend who was named best on ground.

PlayHQ

The RDFNL along with 6 other metropolitan leagues will transition from the existing competition management platform GameDay, onto PlayHQ for 2024 and beyond. This will bring the Metro Leagues in line with the rest of the country for the first time since 2021. We'd like to thank GameDay for their support over a number of years. There will be comprehensive training for all volunteers in the lead up to registrations opening later in the year.

Round 12

Best of luck to all teams in Round 12

ROUND 12 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Western Rams vs Wallan

This will be another big test for the Western Rams. Wallan have been in good form the last couple of weeks and always put there best football together against the Rams. For the first time this season the Rams were held goalless and they will be hungry to put that behind them with an early major.

For Wallan despite some injuries to key players someone is always stepping up. They found ominous form early and were able to put their opposition away before they got going.

From the Coaches:

Western Rams: Melton Centrals were too good on the weekend. We were able to get some games into players as a few players pulled out late due to illness. The players that came in did a great job considering they haven't played much football prior to this game. We are very keen to get out there this week and celebrate NAIDOC week.

Wallan: We were very happy with the performance last week. It was a big day for the club getting three football wins. To win by 10 goals against quality opposition was pleasing we are now up into second spot. These wins can be important come season end. Our midfield were dominant with all the usual suspects plus big Terzi was impressive in the ruck and at centre half back. Hopefully we can continue our form and momentum this weekend against the Rams.

Players to watch

Western Rams: Harley Cameron is the skipper of the Rams and is great for the club on and off field. He was one of the better performers last week and never gives up.

Wallan: Sean Morris is having an excellent year and no doubt he will be amongst it this weekend.

Prediction: Wallan to make it three wins from their last three matches.

Romsey vs Melton Centrals

This is a crucial win for both clubs. Romsey have had a tough couple of weeks but after the bye will be looking to get back on track. Melton Centrals are desperately looking for another scalp of a team above them and this is a realistic chance for them.

Melton Centrals are at full strength and we know Romsey have some long term injuries. This game should be a tight one.

From the Coaches:

Romsey: The bye came at a good time for us as it gave us the chance to reset after a tough month of football. We haven't been too disappointed with our football, but we have been with our results. We still think as a group we can play some really good football, but it is just a matter of doing it for longer. Patches of good football isn't enough to win games against the top teams.

Melton Centrals: We played well last week, they aren't the same team we played in round 1. This week is a grand final for us. We need to beat Romsey to keep our slim finals hopes alive. Lose and there are no finals for us. They will be tough to beat, we should get Fenton back from overseas and Roberts will be back from concussion. We might lose Jake Thornton Gielen with a slight hamstring and Sinclair is injured as well, but we are ready for the challenge.

Players to watch

Romsey: Kane Brinkuis was one of the better performers before the bye and always gets plenty of love of the league socials.

Melton Centrals: Big Dylan Jobson was the round 11 Player of the week with 8 goals. Can he kick another bag today.

Prediction: Melton Centrals to get another upset against a top ranked team.

ROUND 12 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Macedon vs Riddell

Riddell are finding form again and since they have welcomed some senior players back into their line up, they have knocked over Wallan and Woodend Heskett. This is another good test for them but if they want to hold on to any hope for a top three finish and second chance, they need to lock this one away.

For Macedon they were slow started last week and will need to rectify that this weekend. Their second half was impressive but you can't give good team a head start.

From the Coaches:

Macedon: Our first half was terrible against Wallan and we have to own that. Our second half was much improved but Wallan were too good and the more organized of the teams. Consistency in the game is key for us as some of our ordinary stuff is not at the level required but our best is quite good. We will get Hamish Govan, Zach Smedley and Sam Indian back this week which will help our cause.

Riddell: A lot of people expected us to lose on the weekend and we went in underdogs against Wallan too. We know we are not flying but it is pleasing to be playing football we know we are capable of. Its been good to get a couple of senior players back in. Our senior players really stood up on the weekend and we our kids are doing a great job. No doubt this is another big game for us and Macedon.

Players to watch

Macedon: We have mentioned Jason Cooke time and time again but the superstar was back last week. Let's hope he got through okay and he can really start to warm up in the second half of the season.

Riddell: Dylan Tarczon was back to some of his best football last weekend after a ridiculous start to the season. Riddell are hard to beat when he is up and going.

Prediction: Riddell are the inform team in this match up and I think their good form will continue.

Lancefield vs Woodend Heskett

Lancefield really pushed the Hawks at Gilbert Gordon earlier in the year and will be looking to go even better on their home track.

Unfortunately, both teams are missing players due to injury and holidays so this won't be a fair indication of where either side is at.

Woodend Heskett would be disappointed to lose to Riddell while Lancefield would have hoped they were more competitive against Diggers Rest.

From the Coaches:

Lancefield: We played some really good football on the weekend. It is probably up there with our best four quarter performance. They are a bloody good team. We were quite pleased to only be a goal or two away late in the contest but we just could put that scoreboard pressure one. We take some confidence out of our result against Woodend Heskett earlier this year. We know they had players out but so did we. You can only play against the team that shows up and that's what we will worry about this weekend. IT would be great for the group to sneak a win.

Woodend Heskett: It was disappointing to go down to Riddell. We think our team is definitely good enough we just didn't put four quarters of good football together. Best this about football is the short turn around and we are ready to go this weekend. We are not making any excuses

Lancefield: Tim Martin continues to dominate in the ruck and with no Tom Waters the Lancefield mids will need to be on their game.

Woodend Heskett: Obviously Tim Martin.

Prediction: Woodend Heskett to bounce back with a win.

WALLAN FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Another fantastic Saturday of football and netball. We welcomed Macedon while the Club 18s and Women enjoyed a bye.

It was a fantastic day, with great results showing all teams continue to improve, win, lose or draw!

It has been wonderful to have the Wallan Junior Football Club mascots back for the Senior games the last two weeks.

Congratulations to Owen Fowler, playing his first senior game. Owen took the opportunity with open arms and acquitted himself very well. Also, congratulations to Kris Terzievski, playing his first senior game at Wallan. Kris certainly made his presence felt on the field.

Thank you to everyone who kept the scoreboard scores updated and accurate throughout the day, hopefully the electronic scoreboard will be up and running again very soon. Thank you to everyone who helped out throughout the day, in the canteen, the can bar, the gate, assisting the coaches, team managers, trainers, runners, water carriers, time keepers, setting up and packing up. Everyone's contribution is greatly appreciated.

After all the games of football and netball were over we moved on to the $5,000 draw. Huge thank you to everyone who purchased tickets. Thank you to everyone who came to the night. A great night had by all.

This week our Clubbies play Albion at home on Friday night, the Under 19.5s play Woodend Hasket at home on Saturday morning while the Netballers and Reserves & Seniors travel to Rockbank to play the Western Rams. On Sunday the Women's team play West Preston Lakeside at home

Luck to everyone taking the court and fielded this weekend.

Last round we took on the Riddell Bombers at Riddell and came away with mixed results.

The 19.5's football team got the day off to a good start with a win over the Bombers although the team didn't really perform at their best against a side that is below them on the ladder. Currently the team is third on the ladder.

The reserves also followed up with a win playing in heavy conditions to beat the home team by 11 points and retain fourth place on the ladder.

In a disappointing effort the seniors were outplayed by the Bombers who played well on their home ground and produced a dominant last quarter to win by a significant margin. The seniors will be looking to get back to their best form against the Tigers this week.

All four netball teams lost against Riddell which was disappointing, with three of the games being decided by four goals or less, the games could have very easily been wins for the Hawks. A grade still sits third on the ladder and C grade are fourth. Both B grade and the 19's are currently out of the top five. Like the seniors, the netball teams will be looking to put in a more consistent performance against Lancefield.

The senior women's team will play Melton this round and after having the last week off will be excited to be out playing again. With only two more rounds left before finals starts, the team will be looking to continue their strong performance on the field and consolidate their position on the ladder.

Last Saturday night the club hosted our $100 mega draw and goods and services auction at the social rooms. We would like to sincerely thank all of the businesses and club supporters who donated items for the auction. It was a great night filled with excitement as we counted down to the last number to be drawn out and the winner of $10,000. All money raised from this event goes towards the club's contribution to the two new netball courts which are due to start construction at the end of this season. Thanks to everyone who came on the night, it was lots of fun.

This week most of the club heads to Lancefield to take on the Tigers although the 19.5's will play Wallan at Wallan and the senior women's will play Melton at Melton.

The club relies on sponsors to ensure we are able to provide the best experience possible for our players and supporters. Thanks to our round sponsor The Full Moon Saloon for their continued support of the club.

MACEDON FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Round 11 we travelled to Greenhill Oval, Wallan, first to take to the courts were our 19 netballers. Although our girls battled hard the Magpies were far too strong for us on the day, taking out the match 27-17. C Grade turned the table with a very impressive 43 to 8 victory. B Grade followed suit shooting goals from everywhere with a massive 21 goal win it was time for A Grade to show their skill. It was a nail biting game with the lead changing many time, at the sounding of the final siren nothing separated the teams, ending with a 29 all draw.

Our women's team had the week off due to the split round, they will be well rested and ready to take on the top of the ladder team Kyneton. It will no doubt be a tough hard match, but we know the Cats will rise to the challenge and give it their all.

Last Saturday night we held our Mid-Year Ball, it was an absolutely fabulous evening with a great turn out. Our netballers turned out in some of the most beautiful couturier fashions, while our footballers were nothing shy of dapper. Many thanks to Peter Lord from Trio Plumbing who was extremely generous in donating the major raffle prize of holiday accommodation to the Gold Coast. The lucky winner was gun netballer Janelle Birch - congratulations and hope you enjoy the trip.

Thank you to everyone who attended.

GO CATS!

RIDDELL FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Great win by the senior footballers last week. Woodend were too good in the 2's & 3rd's (just)!

All 4 netball games were close contests with Riddell winning all of them, well done girls!

Great day at the Ladies Day function! This event grows every year as do the length of the hangovers which seem to last longer from what I've heard!

A great job done by the organisers - thank you!

Macedon at Macedon in the middle of winter will be fun - go Bombers!!

Don't forget to buy a ticket for the Last Man Standing function to be held on Sunday the 30th July.

$50 per ticket, $5,000+ worth of prizes, buy tickets from the players.

A shout out to all the home game helpers. Your work is greatly appreciated. Don't be shy & get involved peeps!!

GO BOMBERS!

GISBORNE GIANTS FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Melton Centrals were the Gisborne Giants next challenge for their round 11 clash at Arnolds Creek Melton.

The Giants enjoyed playing on the firmer ground, but the windy conditions proved a real challenge for them early in the game and went into quarter time trailing Centrals by eight points.

As the Giants adjusted to the blustery conditions, they started to dominate around the stoppages which allowed them to get their run and carry game going giving their forwards plenty of supply in which they were able to capitalize on in kicking seven goals for the quarter turning a quarter time deficit into a strong half time lead.

The two sides came out after half time to slightly more favourable conditions with the blustery wind dying down allowing cleaner and more deliberate ball use from both sides, but in the end with the Giants having more players available to them and superior ball use were able to run out comfortable winners on this occasion.

Our netballers had a tight tussle against Romsey. Like our footballers, the team had a bit of a slow start, but worked their way back into the match with improved ball use and some great passages of play. After a tight third quarter, it was anyone's game entering the last quarter. Romsey proved too strong in the end, holding on to their three quarter time lead finishing with the win.

ROUND 10 WOMENS PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Round 9.2

As it was a split round in the Senior Womens Rookie Me competition there is just two games this weekend.

Mount Alexander 4.11.35 defeated Romsey 0.2.2 last Saturday rounding out Round 9.1

Melton vs Woodend Heskett

Melton: Last time they met Melton were missing players but a change in coaching ranks may breathe new life into the Bloods.

They currently sit in second place with their opposition in today's game knocking on the door. To hold on top second spot they need to ensure they win.

Woodend Heskett: Woodend Heskett are coming off their biggest win of the season. Infact it wasn't just their biggest win it was the biggest win we have seen recorded in the competition.

Their young guns are really standing up and their development from previously playing at junior level is coming to the top of the senior competition.

A win here could really shake the season up and they will have their sights set on nothing less.

Players to watch

Melton: Rhiannon Carra has now kicked nine goals averaging 1.5 per game. In a competition where goals are hard to come by that contribution is invaluable.

Woodend Heskett: We mention her every week and I feel like we should share this around but I can't not mention Mariam Habib. 31 possessions and three goals. Wow.

Prediction: Woodend Heskett to get the job done and move into second place.

Macedon vs Kyneton

Macedon: Macedon had plenty of winners across the ground in their two point loss to Melton prior to the break. They moved the ball reasonably well out of their defensive 50 but then fell down on their attacking line.

They will need to make the most of their opportunities and lower the eyes and find lead up targets as Kyneton often incept the football and go end to end.

Kyneton: Kyneton were insanely good in their recent encounter with Mount Alexander. They had five players with more than 100 ranking points and their ball usage was first class.

If they continue to be clean with the footy there is few teams that will be able to stay with them

Players to watch

Macedon: Lilli Collins was our player of the week last week and will be looking to continue her strong form after the break.

Kyneton: Taylah Moore almost blew up Premier Data last week in some kind of game.

Prediction: Kyneton still haven't given us any reason to tip against them. Another four points for them.

ROMSEY WOMEN'S FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB NOTES

The Romsey Women's team travelled to Harcourt on Saturday 1st July for their only day game of the season, to play the Mt.Alexander Falcons. A fine day greeted the girls when they alighted from the bus.

With only 17 players being available, Mt Alexander who had a full team topped up the Romsey team with an extra player.

This game played between the bottom 2 sides was a strong contest from the first bounce with both sides having the ball 50% each in their attacking half, Mt.Alexander kicked the only goal for the 1st quarter. the next 3 quarters continued as a 50-50 contest with Romsey once again unable to convert in front of goal, congratulations to Mt.Alexander who were able to record their 2nd win of the season. The Romsey Women continue to compete with enthusiasm including a few more good passages of play again this week.

A long bus trip was planned for the trip home to Romsey with a couple of watering stops scheduled into the trip, no stories have been supplied at the time of this report.

A break (split round) this week for the Romsey Women's team as they refresh and prepare for the last game of the season, let's make it a great one, playing away at Kyneton, Saturday 15th July, scheduled at 5.30 pm.

Thanks Matt & Luke for helping on the day

Thanks again to our game day sponsors, Telegraph Hotel Gisborne, Riddells Creek Nursery, McDonalds Gisborne

WOODEND-HESKET WOMEN'S FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB NOTES

The senior women's team will play Melton this round and after having the last week off will be excited to be out playing again. With only two more rounds left before finals starts, the team will be looking to continue their strong performance on the field and consolidate their position on the ladder.

Last Saturday night the club hosted our $100 mega draw and goods and services auction at the social rooms. We would like to sincerely thank all of the businesses and club supporters who donated items for the auction. It was a great night filled with excitement as we counted down to the last number to be drawn out and the winner of $10,000. All money raised from this event goes towards the club's contribution to the two new netball courts which are due to start construction at the end of this season. Thanks to everyone who came on the night, it was lots of fun.

This week most of the club heads to Lancefield to take on the Tigers although the 19.5's will play Wallan at Wallan and the senior women's will play Melton at Melton.

The club relies on sponsors to ensure we are able to provide the best experience possible for our players and supporters. Thanks to our round sponsor The Full Moon Saloon for their continued support of the club.

WESTERN WATER NETBALL REPORT

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

In a world where nothing is guaranteed, perspective is everything.

What are you grateful for?

That might seem like a strange question to ask any athlete, but the emotion of gratitude can help take your performance to the next level.

Research has linked the emotion of gratitude to better overall physical and mental health, sounder sleep, less anxiety and depression. Athletes are more satisfied with their teams, less likely to burn out and enjoy better well-being overall.

The athlete who pursues achievement in sport so diligently that they forget about one of the key purposes of sport, enjoyment and fun, can often end frustrated and miserable. The athlete who pursues enjoyment first, with a deep commitment to excellence and improvement is the athlete who lasts and achieves.

So why can focusing on gratitude be so beneficial to you as a netballer?

Well consider that it is impossible to have two emotions at once. And, the same goes for thoughts for that matter – we can only handle one thought at a time. As an athlete, this is important for you to know. When you do feel negative emotions that limit your performance, you have the option of changing your state to a positive emotion – and gratitude is a great one to make the shift.

A few characteristics of grateful netballers ...

Grateful netballers appreciate what they have. While some players complain, make excuses and don't appreciate the fantastic opportunity of sport, grateful players are excited to have the opportunity to play a sport they love and all of the benefits that go with that sport (fitness, relationships, life lessons, joy of winning, the learning from losing and the opportunity to challenge and test your abilities).

Grateful netballers are grateful for competitors

Appreciate your competitors! Competitors can bring out the best in you and without them you do not have the opportunity to play and test your limits. Competitors give you an opportunity to bring out your best. You need your competitors!

Grateful netballers appreciate the journey and struggle

They know that there will be difficulties and netball often goes in cycles – ups and downs. Grateful players learn from these struggles to always move forward. There is an appreciation in the value of their struggles and an ability to look at the big picture and know there are brighter days ahead.

Grateful netballers enjoy pressure

Is there pressure in sports? Yes! But, grateful players recognize the incredible opportunity they have to demonstrate their skills and test their limits. You play a game you love often with people engaged and cheering what you do. Grateful players appreciate the meaning that pressure gives their experience. They know pressure is a privilege. Grateful players look around and appreciate the challenge that is being given to them.

Grateful netballers do not rely on winning

Because they are so focused on a great process and appreciate great competition, the joy of grateful players is not dependent on winning. They want to win, but appreciate their process, the competition and the challenge.

Grateful netballers let go

When it's time to play and practice, it is done with purpose, intention and efficiency. Grateful players work hard with intention but also appreciate and enjoy their time away from practice and competition – appreciating all parts of their life.

So, what can you do to become a grateful netballer?

Here's a start...

1. Realize how lucky you are to be playing a sport, having the opportunity to express yourself and having the opportunity to give your life meaning.
2. Remember you can only feel one emotion at once. Replace anxious feelings with feelings of gratefulness – make the decision to change your state with a shift to being grateful for this great opportunity to participate in your sport.
"I can't do this" or "what will they think if I lose" shifts to a grateful attitude ...
"How lucky am I to do this and test my skills"
3. As an exercise, at the end of each day, think about 2 things you are grateful for from the day. Get in the habit of being grateful for things in your netball and in your life.

Remember to be grateful for what you have including your opportunity to play netball. Netball is not something you have to do, but something you choose to do!

WESTERN WATER NETBALL PREVIEW

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

What a round of netball round 11 was.

A draw and some really close results.

Lets hope round 12 is just as exciting as we close in on the pointy end of the season and the ladder and finals contenders start to take shape.

Western Rams vs Wallan

What a game this will be. Both these teams will be looking to play finals.

We say time and time again Western Rams are capable of winning the entire competition but some weeks they just don't put it together.

Western Rams were too tall and strong for the Melton Centrals defenders and that could well be the case again here.

Georgia Stevenson has had an outstanding season in the last line of defence for the Magpies but lining up on Malia Seumanutafa or Bec Hicks would be a daunting task for most.

Amanda Rothwell Hiscock has also been applying steady pressure for four quarters and creating turnovers but the fast release of the mid courters for Western Rams could see her impact nullified.

Wallan have some fire power of their own in attack though and despite being less experienced than most teams they keep finding ways to win.

Lucas and his girls have proven themselves a lot this year and they will give it 100 percent no matter what.

Prediction: Western Rams to win this one...just.

Romsey vs Melton Centrals

Since these two teams met there have been some serious changes to Romsey's team.

Each week they have been able to bring in players and their cohesion is improving the more games they play.

Emily Miles is going to be a star of the competition and her influence in the mid court despite still being eligible to play junior is quite outstanding.

Miles has had so many great players around her and she will be learning and improving for weeks to come yet.

For Melton Centrals they have continued to bring in young junior players as well and are on the door of finals.

Their accuracy in the goal circle is an issue and against good teams they will need to make the most of their opportunities.

They have a very handy goal scorer who is mostly playing B grade but is more than capable, still, at A grade level.

Prediction: Romsey to turn the result around from earlier in the season and take the four points.

Macedon vs Riddell

Another enticing contest here. Sitting towards the top of the ladder both these teams have had a decent start to the season.

Macedon have however got a few notable injuries which is creating some unusual results.

Janelle Birch and Hetty Donoghue change the look of the Cats completely and their absence at either end is being felt.

Chloe Williams tried hard and managed 25 of Macedon's 29 goals last weekend but it wasn't enough to see them take all four premierships points however they did hold on to take two.

For Riddell Lara Turner is in good form in the mid court and combining well with Maddy Brown who is a serious player in the senior comp now.

Brown sets such a great example for other junior players coming through our programs.

Tepaea Hobson adds another dimension to their defense with her ability to read the ball and time her active hands.

This game will be closer but unfortunately for the Cats their injuries if they don't get up could prove costly.

Prediction: Riddell to win in a tight contest.

Lancefield vs Woodend Hasket

Lancefield will be disappointed they weren't able to record their first win of the season against a struggling Diggers Rest but they were able to stay competitive and score at ease.

Maybe another win for the Tigers is just around the corner.

Tarnee Hammond was a serious goaler a season or so ago and it has been great to see her back in the A grade ranks.

Kira Baldwin has also been in good form in the defensive half while the midfield is being controlled by Mia Daly.

For Woodend Hasket they are trying to find ways to cover the absence of Ty Coppinger who is away on holidays.

Charlie Duff Tytler was impressive in defense last week and combined well with playing coach Meg Grbac.

With Duff Tytler in defence Abby Gilmore led from the front in the attacking half.

While Coppinger leaves huge shoes to fill it has been a blessing for the Hawks that the injury to Grbac and the absence of Coppinger have not crossed over.

Prediction: Woodend Hasket to bounce back with the four points here.
