Round 17

12TH AUGUST 2023

ACROSS MY DESK by Football Operations Manager Aaron McLean

RDFNL Rookie Me Women's Grand Final

Wow what a huge night it was last Saturday at Gilbert Gordon, Woodend. The crowd was amazing, with plenty of Kyneton and Macedon fans combined with neutral RDFNL supporters ensuring that no more cars could fit inside the venue. Congratulations to Kyneton for their perfect season going through undefeated and well done to Macedon for taking it right up to them in a terrific Grand Final.

Thank you to our Women's clubs for their support in our first season, it was a tremendous success and we look forward to another massive year in 2024.

ROUND 17 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Diggers Rest vs Romsey

Diggers Rest look set to finish the season on top of the ladder as they sit two games clear but for Romsey a win this weekend is far more important.

Stuck in a gridlock with Macedon Romsey could benefit greatly from an upset win over the flag favourites.

Last week they defeated Macedon which now puts them in the box seat to finish fifth.

From the Coaches:

Diggers Rest: It was good to get another win. We never wanted to lose but the loss against Riddell has given us a bit more energy and we are actually putting in the hard yards now. We blooded some juniors last week who all played well. This week we should get a fair few senior body back in ready to take it up to Romsey. They always seem to play their best football against us. They have proven to be the sharp shooting team of the comp and last time they kept themselves in the contest with straight kicking. They have plenty of dangerous players we need to be careful of.

Romsey: We have been really close without getting results so it is good to get the points and some belief back. Against Macedon we got some reward for effort which was nice. We know how big this game is for us against Diggers Rest we can't afford to slip up. We need to take our form into the next two weeks and be building at the right time of the year. We have been in reasonable form without having wins to our names but that won't cut it the next two weeks. If we want to make sure of our finals chances, we need to win them both.

Players to watch

Diggers Rest: Jaycob Hickey was back to his best on the weekend with a best on ground performance against the Rams.

Romsey: Nathan Rayment had a day out kicking six goals for the Redbacks.

Prediction: Diggers Rest to lock up top spot by taking the four points.

Macedon vs Western Rams

Macedon will be showing no mercy to the bottom placed team this weekend as their chances of playing finals diminished after last weekends loss to Romsey.

From the Coaches:

Macedon: It was disappointing to lose of course it always is but it isn't the end yet. Romsey deserved the win as they were far more efficient and beat us aerially as well. The aim is to win this weekend so next week is live. We have a couple of changes to make but health is reasonable at the minute.

Western Rams: This is our last game so we will be going out there and giving it our all. Thanks to all clubs for being a part of the season. We recruited a lot of players this year and hopefully it gives us something to build on for next season.

Players to watch

Macedon: Brodie Hoyne was in the thick of the action last week winning the ball from stoppage and sending the Cats into attack.

Prediction: Macedon should secure a big win and close in on Romsey who are one place above them on the ladder.

Wallan vs Woodend Hesket

A win here could be the difference between these two teams getting a second chance in the finals or going out in straight set. It is a game of huge importance and both coaches are hungry to get one up on their opponents.

From the Coaches:

Wallan: Lancefield have certainly improved and move the ball well. Their ground is big, which rewards run and carry. It was pleasing to get Michael Baccari and Jacob Langbourne back, who haven't played in two months. They are both extremely talented and exciting young footballers. Another young star is Brodie Gilchrist who continues to thrive in senior footy plus the likes of Boyall, Morris, Layley and Viani played pivotal roles, especially in the second half. The Woodend game is shaping as a mini final. With a second chance on the line come finals time. It's our last home game for the year & we are looking forward to the challenge.

Woodend Hesket: Very timely week off for us with injuries and holiday returns. That said we didn't respond well to the week/s off last time so have approached things a little differently this time. Wallan are a very dangerous outfit. So many threats across all 3 parts of the ground. If we can minimise the impact of Boyall and Morris in the midfield, and avoid Gilchrist on our forward entries, that will go a long way to helping us win. We will have a few tough calls to make at the selection table this week which is positive

Players to watch

Wallan: Stevie Boyall got a bit of leather poisoning last week with 40 possessions and a goal to his names in their win against Lancefield.

Woodend Hesket: Daniel Toman has been the best player for the Hawks all season long and he will be important to their success this weekend and moving forward.

Prediction: Woodend Hesket got the job done earlier in the season and they will again here.

Lancefield vs Riddell

Last week's results didn't do Lancefield justice. After a good showing against Wallan where they didn't make the most of their opportunities, they will be keen to put that behind them and get a good look at four points against Riddell. Riddell were able to turnaround the disappointing loss to Melton Centrals in round 7 with a win over them in round 16.

From the Coaches:

Lancefield: We played really well we got the ball inside but just couldn't convert and make the most of our opportunities. We are just lacking a bit of composure we are asking the group to put speed on the ball but we still need to learn to take the foot off and get a good hit up target rather than blazing a way. We have two weeks of football left in us this season and we want to prove ourselves. Riddell are a good team with good players all across the ground but if we can make the most of our inside 50 we might be able to stick with them a bit longer than a few games this season. We feel like we match up relatively okay and we won't die wondering.

Riddell (Captain): Pretty happy down at Riddell at the moment. We had our last function for the year on Saturday and feels like the group is very keen to roll up our sleeves and get into this last portion of the year. We try not to focus on too far ahead but we are aware our second chance fate is in our hands. The goal is to win the last two games of the year and take some momentum into the finals series. We are enjoying having a spread of goal kickers on the stat sheet each week but Dylan Tarczon has definitely been the engine that's gotten us going.

Players to watch

Lancefield: Lancefield are a better team with their inspirational ruckman Tom Waters in the line up and he was once again in the best players for the Tigers last week.

Riddell: Nicolas Bovezza provides a spark for the Bombers and they haven't lost a game where he has hit the scoreboard yet this season.

Prediction: Riddell to keep the momentum going with another win.

WOODEND-HESKET FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

While most of the club enjoyed a bye last round the 19's netball team played the Gisborne Giants under lights at Gardiner Reserve on Friday night. With a few players unavailable due to the game being on Friday night, Minty Taylor and Steph Waddington from the 15's netball team stepped up for their first game of senior netball. It was terrific to see these two young players from the Woodend Junior Football Netball Club take the court and they certainly were not out of place, with both players holding their own against older opponents.

The team had a strong win, beating the Giants 34-8 with an excellent first quarter setting the scene and a last quarter where the Hawks scored 10 goals and kept the Giants goalless. Congratulations to all of the players, their improvement over the second half of the season has been great to see.

The club was pleased to be able to host Kyneton and Macedon for the Senior Women's grand final on Saturday night. There was a huge crowd in attendance and a wonderful family atmosphere despite the cold weather. Congratulations to Kyneton who are the winners of the inaugural premiership and well done to Aaron and all at the league for organising such a memorable first season.

This week we head to Wallan for football and netball which will be a good test across all football teams and A grade in the netball. Wallan sit either just above or just below Woodend in the football grades and just below in A grade netball. Make sure you get along to Greenhill Reserve for all of the action.

The club relies on sponsors to ensure we are able to provide the best experience possible for our players and supporters. Thanks to our round sponsor Bendigo Bank - Trentham & Districts for their continued support of the club.

MACEDON FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUBClub Notes*

Firstly, a massive congratulations to our Women's team who played in the grand final last Saturday, and although they didn't come away with the cup, they could not have been more impressive on how they played – not only on Saturday but throughout the season. Hats off to you all – you are all champions in the eyes of the Cattery. 2024 will be better and bigger.

Our netballers had an across-the-board win in all four games against Romsey. However, it was not the same result for our footballers, this weekend they are hopeful to turn the tables.

GISBORNE GIANTS FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Friday night football came back to Gisborne this week with the Gisborne Giants hosting Melton Centrals for the first time this year in their Round 16 clash.

Even though Centrals were short on numbers they showed plenty of spirit and willingness to compete, which meant the Giants had to be on their game from the outset.

To Centrals credit, they were able to play out the entire game, but in the end were no match for a close to full strength Giants side with the Giants running out 132 point winners.

The coaching staff and players of the Gisborne Giants would like to thank all those involved in organising and putting together the night at such short notice. With a BBQ, drinks and fire being supplied for everyone to enjoy while watching the football.

WESTERN WATER NETBALL REPORT

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

Learning how to become a better athlete is a lifelong pursuit. There are a number of ways you can improve, and the methods at your disposal are changing all the time!

This list covers the fundamental techniques and strategies you can use to become a great athlete and find more success during competition. Take this to heart, and watch your performance improve!

1. Write Down Your Goals

Setting long-term goals is a great way to stay motivated and become a better athlete. Not only can you identify what it is you're trying to achieve, but you can figure out how you're going to make it happen.

2. Have a Good Diet

You can't expect to see improvements in your performance if you're not fueling your body right! While you might be working out more than the average person, a poor diet is going to have ill effects on your body just the same.

3. Master the Fundamentals

Athletes are notorious for wanting to dive head-first into an intense training regime. The effort is admirable, but it often leads to injuries! You need to have a good grasp of the fundamentals. Even if you're a seasoned athlete, you could benefit from exercises that are designed to improve your foundation.

4. Be Consistent and Don't Expect Results to Come Immediately

Consistency is key when you want to be a better athlete. No great athlete got to where they are today by skipping workouts and slacking off. There are going to be days when you don't want to train. But, you need to get motivated and do it anyway!

5. Improve Core Strength

It doesn't matter whether you're a cross-country runner or a football player, core strength is essential. Most don't realize it, but your core is easily one of the most important muscle groups in your body. It affects all other muscle groups and keeps your entire body in balance.

6. Push Your Limits

The longer you train, the easier your workouts are going to seem. While it might be satisfying to see that tangible progress, it's not a good thing! You should always aim to push your limits.

7. Improve Your Sports-Specific Strength

Fundamentals and overall body conditioning are important. However, you also need to focus on skills that are specific to your sport. Building strength in those key areas will improve your overall performance and decrease your chances of injury.

8. Train Your Brain

It's not just your body that you have to train to become a better athlete. No matter what sport you play, your cognitive abilities have a big impact on how you perform.

9. Warm Up Properly

This should go without saying, but warming up your body before training is a must! You need to prepare your body for the rigorous workout ahead. Warming up loosens the muscles and mobilizes your joints. This can help you perform better and prevent injuries.

10. Cross-Train

Cross-training is the act of training in activities that are not part of your main sport. Say, for example, in netball you probably focus on short sharp movements. To cross train you may work on your endurance.

11. Develop a Training Schedule

Finding time throughout the week to train is not always easy. Athletes with full-time jobs or families often have to carve out time in their day in order to train and get better. While squeezing in a few minutes here and there is better than not training at all, that inconsistency is not helping you reach your goal.

12. Get Enough Sleep

If you're not getting a full eight to nine hours of sleep, you need to make some changes to your lifestyle and schedule.

13. Stretch

Do you experience a ton of muscle pain after an intense workout? Chances are, you're not doing enough to cool your body down afterward. Before you move on with your day, take a few minutes to perform some low-intensity movements. Basic stretches will help speed up the recovery process by promoting blood flow through your muscles.

14. Become Mentally Strong

Mental and emotional strength can go a long way. Training is difficult. The time and work that you put into improving can take a toll on your mental health. Pile on external factors that are out of your control and you can easily lose the motivation you need to continue your journey.

15. Get Out of Your Comfort Zone

Fear should never be a part of the equation. Many athletes are hesitant to try new things or push themselves outside of their comfort zone. So, they stick to what they know.

Conclusion

Finding out how to become a better athlete is both simple and complex. A lot of the fundamentals are rather straightforward in principle, but tricky to implement in practice.

Use these techniques to guide you through training as you work to get better each and every day. Maintain the progress, stay consistent, and you'll certainly be successful.

WESTERN WATER NETBALL PREVIEW

by RDNFL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

With two rounds to go in the Senior Netball Competition finals are still open for a number of clubs. Who will win in round 17 and keep their finals hopes alive.

Diggers Rest vs Romsey

Diggers Rest looked to have given up on season 2023 with players playing in different positions and the result speaking for itself against the Western Rams last week.

Maggie Payne started a bit shaky but found her feet in goal shooter while Lauren Leckie and Alice Sacco were their two better players.

For Romsey a loss to the Cats saw them fall outside of the top 5. They will be looking for a big win to help boost their finals chances this season.

With Lena Way at the helm they have been able to bring in a lot of new players but their results haven't been as impressive as they could be.

Maggie Lind was once again their best player followed by Olivia Mitchell who dominated in goal keeper.

Emma Grech also played well but it wasn't enough to take the points.

You would think it wouldn't matter what team Romsey showed up with this week they will take the points from a struggling Diggers Rest.

Prediction: Romsey to get back on the winners list this weekend.

Macedon vs Western Rams

What a game this will be. Western Rams are coming hard at the rest of the competition trying to make their way into finals contention.

After their big win over Diggers Rest they are finally inside the top 5 but they will need to keep winning to keep their momentum.

Macedon welcomed back Hetty Donoghue back into the line up even if it was just briefly.

Karlee Bruno is having a strong month of netball as is Katie Clarke.

Chloe Williams was the best of the attacking group.

That is now four wins in a row for the Cats.

Western Rams made light work of Diggers Rest in a 50-goal demolition.

Malia Seumanutafa was in good form scoring 51 goals while Te Pono Aukuha was named best on court.

Both teams will be looking to put their best foot forward this weekend as they could very well meet again in a few weeks time.

This will be the Rams last regular season game as they have the bye in round 18.

Prediction: Macedon should secure a big win and start peaking at the right point of the season.

Wallan vs Woodend Hasket

Wallan looked very impressive in their big win over Lancefield.

Lancefield never really had a chance to get going as Wallan controlled the play from the first whistle.

Rebekah Konstanopoulos was this week's player of the week for the outstanding work in goal attack. Together with Maeve Donegan made life very hard for the Lancefield defenders.

They won't have it as easy this weekend when they come up against arguably the best defensive set up in the league. Tayissa Coppinger and Meg Grbac work well together and have also welcomed Hayley Rodgers and Georgia Bowkett into their defensive group.

Woodend Hasket have been pushed by some of the lower clubs in recent weeks and the bye gave them a good opportunity to reset.

Laura Carland suffered an injury in the game prior to the bye and will struggle to get back playing anytime soon.

In the absence of Sarah Duff and now Carland their midcourt will be lacking the depth they have been privileged to have for the last two seasons.

Even with injuries you would think Woodend Hasket would be too strong for Wallan but Wallan have been the quiet achievers all season long.

Prediction: Woodend Hasket got the job done earlier in the season and they will again here.

Lancefield vs Riddell

It has been a long season for Lancefield.

They changed coaches mid-season and have made several changes to their playing list. Nothing seemed to work on Saturday as Wallan put them to the sword nice and early.

For Riddell they overcome Melton Centrals in a much closer affair.

Lancefield will continue to fight but it is hard to seem them finding their first win of the season. Amanda Bruce looks to have been injured in the game and she has been one of their better players this season.

Darcee Ellard who is their consistent goal attacked moved into defence to try and stem the bleeding but it was to no avail.

For Riddell they just keep on keeping on. Shelby Holter enjoyed a run out in goal attack while Ellen Close held strong in goal shooter.

Close continues to have a strong season and two other impressive performers were Ruby Shannon in the mid court and Eliza Burge in defence.

Prediction: Riddell to keep the momentum going with another win.
