Round 2 / ANZAC Day

Thanks to all of the Clubs for their efforts over the ANZAC Day weekend in Round 2. As always, Macedon put on a great show on ANZAC Day raising much needed funds for the Commando Welfare Trust, but it was also great to see all of their other Clubs play their parts at their respective matches.

In the footy, well done to Romsey, Riddell, Wallan and Macedon on their wins. Some nail bitters, some big upsets and some runaway wins. In the netball, we had some big performances and goal scoring feats as well as an absolute nail biter at Macedon where Diggers prevailed by a goal. Well done to Woodend-Hesket, Riddell, Wallan and Diggers Rest on their wins.

James Wright 200 Senior Games

A big congratulations to Macedon skipper James Wright on his 200th Senior game over the weekend. "Nippa" has been an ornament not only at the Macedon FNC but also in the RDFNL and we paid tribute to his career with the photo below during the week on our socials.

Club 18's & Female Football Begins

The final three RDFNL Competitions kick off this weekend with the launch of the RDFNL Female Football Junior Girls and Youth Girls Competitions as well as the newly branded RDFNL Club 18's. We look forward to our 10 Female Football teams and 11 Club 18 teams hitting the park this weekend.

ROUND 3 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Riddell vs Diggers Rest

Talking Points

It is not very often we talk about Diggers Rest and there need to bounce back but that will be the case this weekend when they meet Riddell.

Both teams have some injury concerns which should keep the game on a level playing field.

Diggers Rest will be hungry after their loss to Macedon and Riddell will still be looking to make their mark on the top end of the competition. This should be an exciting match for both teams and their supporters.

From the coaches

Riddell: Diggers Rest is a really good team. It is easy to know what you are going to get and how they are going to play but it's never easy to stop them. We are looking forward to some nice weather at Riddell and having a crack at a strong team. Injuries are a slight concern I think the year away from footy is definitely playing its part. Players are sore and we need to be monitoring that.

Diggers Rest: We were really flat last weekend and just couldn't get going. We think we should have lost by more and we never really felt in the contest until the last quarter. Riddell will be a tough game, it always is. Doesn't matter how they are going they get themselves up and play well against us.

Who to watch?

Riddell: Ben Sonogan continues to be a target up forward but small forward Matt Panuccio has had a great start to the year. Josh Grabham can also create headaches for the opposition and was in good form last week.

Diggers Rest: Diggers Rest have plenty of stars but youngster Thomas Schwarzenberg stepped up last weekend and made the wing his own. Keep an eye on him throughout the season.

Prediction

Diggers Rest to get themselves back on the winners' list.

Wallan vs Western Rams

Talking Points

The Wallan forward line is as potent as it gets in the RDFNL competition and Martin Weaver and his troops will need to get on top early. Wallan have a number of quality avenues towards goal so shutting down one of them is not an option. In their first outing the Western Rams defensive end looked vulnerable but with a bye they have had two weeks to rectify that. Western Rams will be bolstered by the return of their vice-captain Tom McColl who hasn't played football for a number of years.

From the coaches

Wallan: Our forward line is very dangerous with multiple options and our midfield is performing well. Assistant Coach Matty Huy has them well-drilled, structured, and prepared. We have a few injury concerns at the minute however our depth in the reserves is strong and I have confidence in any playing coming in and playing their role. On a more personal note, Stevie Boyall and his partner Steph welcomed their first child into the world last weekend and we would like to congratulate them on their beautiful arrival.

Western Rams: The start of the year was disappointing for us. We probably have 5 of our best 10 still out but if they come back in we look a lot better. We should be almost full strength for today's game so it will be a good test to see where we are at. If we can't match it, it could be a long year. We just want to continue to focus on being competitive for a full four quarters.

Who to watch?

Wallan: Shaun Stewart has taken his game to a new level and Brenton Cox and Ricky Schraven played well while Corey Grindlay and Matt Perri are always exciting to watch.

Western Rams: Tyler Nesbit is always a player to watch. New captain Josh Casey will also be wanting to put his best foot forward.

Prediction: Wallan to continue their good form to start season 2021 and record their third victory.

ROUND 3 RDFNL PREVIEWS

with Grace Bibby

Melton Centrals vs Woodend Heskett

Talking Points

Melton Centrals have been hit hard with injury but they know if they lose this game the chances of them playing finals is low. If the injury to Dylan Weir wasn't bad enough a second injury to replacement forward Curtis Schulz has them looking very vulnerable in round 3. Woodend Heskett will also be fine-tuning a lot of things this week as they were dismantled by Romsey last weekend.

From the coaches

Melton Centrals: For us this week it is all about the personnel we get on the field. We can't be too worried about our opposition we need to get a team on the field and kick a score if we can do that then we think realistically we are a good chance. We said at the start of the year we couldn't afford injuries and we have three or four of our top-end players missing now. We are praying for rain to bring this one closer, but the morale is excellent and we are still so happy to be back. We need to win to play finals it is that simple.

Woodend Heskett: It is an important game for the Hawks who looked okay in round one but were walked all over in round 2. Coming up against an injury-depleted Melton Centrals will be a good opportunity for them to bounce back.

Who to watch?

Melton Centrals: Without Weir and Schultz in the forward line the Melton Centrals will need to rely on a few mids finding the middle of the big sticks. Jay Culhane played a good support role in the forward line in round one while Milan Sevic played well last week.

Woodend Heskett: Rory Alexander provided a spark in the forward line for the Hawks last week and was their best player. Keep an eye on him again this week.

Prediction

Woodend Heskett to bounce back and overcome Melton Centrals.

Romsey vs Lancefield

Talking Points:

Any team that can kick 27 goals four are going to be tough to beat and if Romsey can get close to emulating that this weekend Lancefield could be facing two big results in as many weeks

Lancefield did look to be an improved line up under Tom Waters and they definitely have some big-name players on the team list but it will be a matter of whether they can pull it all together. At times they moved the ball well against Wallan but could not prevent the onslaught of goals kicked.

From the coaches

Romsey: Senior Coach Paul Kennedy would have been stoked with the turn around from round one to round two and will be hoping for another victory this weekend.

Lancefield: Tom Waters and his team will be much better for the round two-run. The club is moving in the right direction but may take more time to gel.

Who to watch?

Romsey: Corey Pertzel is a dangerous forward and will have his confidence up after a six-goal haul last week.

Lancefield: Jayden Williams impressed in his first game with Lancefield last weekend and looks to be a crafty player with the ball in his hand. He will add spurts of excitement in most games he plays.

Prediction: Romsey is the stronger team on paper and will go into the match as favourites.

As twilight fell on ANZAC eve, and after a stirring tribute to our fallen service men and women from all wars, we took on Romsey for our first home game 2021 at Gilbert Gordon Oval. We had fantastic community support hosting a great crowd but a disappointing result in the seniors encounter. Romsey were far too strong and accurate defeating Woodend Hesket and returning home with the Inaugural Brian "Muscles" Lee Cup.

The Hawks flew high for all other games over the day having comprehensive wins across all grades in Netball, with all the players, coaches and the support staff highlighting their great team spirit and support for each other. The Reserves chalked up their first win for the season and for new coaches James Chettle and Steve Chapman impressing all who braved the cold to support them on what has become a great night in our fixture each season.

Please note the new date for drawing of our major raffle for the season is now Saturday 15th May which is our home game v Macedon.

WALLAN FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Round two saw Wallan FNC travel to Lancefield for all teams, playing Riddell in Under 19.5s and Lancefield in all other games.

It was a beautiful day and we enjoyed the wonderful hospitality of the Lancefield FNC. Even a passing dog paid a visit to the netball court, appropriately dressing in a black and white coat leading all present to think the dog was owed by a Wallan supporter. Not to be, it belonged to a passing gentleman who quickly called and put a lead on his dog as they continued on their way but not before J8 Sports Photography captured the moment. Wallan was able to take home wins for all teams for day however it certainly didn't go unnoticed the great growth in the Lancefield teams, it certainly wasn't all one way traffic.

On Sunday our Women's team played St Mary's at home. It was a fantastic game, played in great spirit on ANZAC day. The end result was a very fitting draw.

Today we welcome Rockbank to our club and wish all teams good luck. The second draw of the 2021 Key Ring Club will take place this evening, sometime between 4.30pm and 6.30pm. Friday night will see our first Club 18s game under lights against Sunbury Loins.

Thank you to everyone who continues to help the club out on game day and throughout the week, your support is greatly appreciated. Thank you to all our sponsors for your ongoing support.

WESTERN RAMS FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

Our first home game for the 2021 season after a long and arduous journey in 2020- brought us a lot of positives and a lot of learnings as a club. A fantastic and very much anticipated Round 1 for us at the Western Rams, and a quick bye break last week in the season already. We now look forward to our next game against Wallan.

Football

In round 1, we welcomed Melton Centrals to Ian Cowie Reserve in what was tipped to be a solid performance for our Land Transport Senior team. It was great to finally have football back and whilst things didn't quite go to plan before the bounce, the first quarter seen Centrals take full advantage of the momentum and caught us flat footed booting 7 goals to none. At the first break, we steadied and went back to basics outscoring them 2 goals to 1 with Jake Mallia putting our first goal on the board for season 2021.

The third quarter was one we would rather forget being the most dominant quarter from Centrals piling on 8 goals to 1 setting them up with a lead, too far to peg back. However, we refused to put the white flag up to surrender and instead, dug in for one last quarter which was our better quarter on the day.

The end result was far from anticipated going down to a well-educated Centrals outfit by 79 points.

We head across to Wallan in our next game, who in our opinion is the benchmark club for 2021. We get 5 blokes return to the senior team for this game which will only help our midfield and rotations going forward.

Netball

Our netballers showcased their ability on the court against Melton Centrals, and for the first time in quite a while, all teams were filled from U19s to A Grade. Our girls started off strong, but just didn't play out the full 4 quarters- which will be a focus for our girls throughout the season. With close games, coming away with a win, a draw and two losses- we have a starting point.

MACEDON FOOTBALL NETBALL CLUB

Club Notes

A massive crowd attended our 6th ANZAC Day match, many thanks to Diggers Rest FNC for participating on the day. Cats started the day with the U19 netballers taking out an 8-point win, followed up with U19 1/2 footballers putting on a thrilling match. The lead changed many times, with game coming down to the final minutes - Macedon coming away with a fantastic 4-point victory. Harry Higgins voted best on ground - Goals went to Potter, Blake, Webb, Gray & Calopa.

C grade netballers had a close game and succumbed to a 4-point loss. Reserve football saw the return of Goodwin brothers (Muzza & Daz) and club stalwart Az Christiansen. The scoreboard did not reflect the actual game - A Cleary was our only goal scorer with A Cristofaro named best on. B grade played a hard game; however, Diggers were a tad to strong on the day, taking out the win by 10. A Grade had a thrilling match only to go down by 1 in the minute.

James (Nippa) Wright celebrated his 200th senior, Nippa came through our junior ranks, He has captained the team in 129 matches including our 2017 Senior Premiership, a 5-time senior B&F winner, has been a RDFNL player/captain/team of the year, Vic Country Rep and Club Life Member. What a more fitting way to mark this milestone by taking out a win

Congratulations to Macedon's Sean Phillips on winning our $1,000 Membership Raffle

Volunteer of the Week Award went to Dom Andreacchio, not only does he put together our ANZAC Day service, but he also works tirelessly behind the scenes. You can see him in the kitchen Thursday nights serving up meals, jumping behind the counter in the canteen and is a committed committee member. Well done Dom - your hard work and dedication to the club is greatly appreciated

WESTERN WATER NETBALL REPORT

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

On a day like Anzac Day when we stop for one minute and think how lucky we are, we really appreciate our ability to play a sport we love, in a country with so many privileges so the theme of today is being grateful

What are you grateful for?

That might seem like a strange question to ask any athlete, but the emotion of gratitude can help take your performance to the next level.

Research has linked the emotion of gratitude to better overall physical and mental health, sounder sleep, less anxiety and depression. Athletes are more satisfied with their teams, less likely to burn out and enjoy better well-being overall.

The athlete who pursues achievement in sport so diligently that they forget about one of the key purposes of sport, enjoyment and fun, can often end frustrated and miserable. The athlete who pursues enjoyment first, with a deep commitment to excellence and improvement is the athlete who lasts and achieves.

So why can focusing on gratitude be so beneficial to you as a netballer?

Well consider that it is impossible to have two emotions at once. And, the same goes for thoughts for that matter – we can only handle one thought at a time. As an athlete, this is important for you to know. When you do feel negative emotions that limit your performance, you have the option of changing your state to a positive emotion – and gratitude is a great one to make the shift.

A few characteristics of grateful netballers ...

Grateful netballers appreciate what they have. While some players complain, make excuses and don't appreciate the fantastic opportunity of sport, grateful players are excited to have the opportunity to play a sport they love and all of the benefits that go with that sport (fitness, relationships, life lessons, joy of winning, the learning from losing and the opportunity to challenge and test your abilities).

Grateful netballers are grateful for competitors

Appreciate your competitors! Competitors can bring out the best in you and without them you do not have the opportunity to play and test your limits. Competitors give you an opportunity to bring out your best. You need your competitors!

Grateful netballers appreciate the journey and struggle

They know that there will be difficulties and netball often goes in cycles. – ups and downs. Grateful players learn from these struggles to always move forward. There is an appreciation in the value of their struggles and an ability to look at the big picture and know there are brighter days ahead.

Grateful netballers enjoy pressure

Is there pressure in sports? Yes! But, grateful players recognize the incredible opportunity they have to demonstrate their skills and test their limits. You play a game you love often with people engaged and cheering what you do. Grateful players appreciate the meaning that pressure gives their experience. They know pressure is a privilege. Grateful players look around and appreciate the challenge that is being given to them.

Grateful netballers do not rely on winning

Because they are so focused on a great process and appreciate great competition, the joy of grateful players is not dependent on winning. They want to win, but appreciate their process, the competition and the challenge.

Grateful netballers let go

When it's time to play and practice, it is done with purpose, intention and efficiency. Grateful players work hard with intention but also appreciate and enjoy their time away from practice and competition – appreciating all parts of their life.

So, what can you do to become a grateful netballer?

Here's a start...

1. Realize how lucky you are to be playing a sport, having the opportunity to express yourself and having the opportunity to give your life meaning.
2. Remember you can only feel one emotion at once. Replace anxious feelings with feelings of gratefulness – make the decision to change your state with a shift to being grateful for this great opportunity to participate in your sport.
"I can't do this" or "what will they think if I lose" shifts to a grateful attitude ...
"How lucky am I to do this and test my skills"
3. As an exercise, at the end of each day, think about 2 things you are grateful for from the day. Get in the habit of being grateful for things in your netball and in your life.

Remember to be grateful for what you have including your opportunity to play netball. Netball is not something you have to do, but something you choose to do!

WESTERN WATER NETBALL PREVIEW

by RDFNL Netball Manager Grace Bibby

Round two delivered some interesting results with most game margins blowing out.

One game though stood alone as the game of the round and it was Diggers Rest who prevailed.

On ANZAC Day in front of a passionate crowd the Burras were able to hold off a gallant Cats line up.

Both teams were without stars with Janelle Birch still on the sidelines for the Cats and Chelsea Ross injured for Burras, but if last week's game is any indication, we are in for a treat when they meet again.

Alex Ball looks to be an exciting inclusion for Diggers Rest and she took home the ANZAC Day Medal.

The win for Diggers Rest will set them up nicely for their game this week against Riddell.

Riddell played well against Melton Centrals last week to record their first victory under Adam Boldiston.

Riddell vs Diggers Rest

Both teams come into this round with a good win in round 2.

Diggers Rest had to hold their nerve while Riddell were always in control.

As previously mentioned, Alex Ball was incredible in the attacking end for the Burras but their defense was equally as impressive shutting down Ciara Stewart and Chloe Wilson.

The attacking end will be up against it again this weekend with Kirby Elliot a young star for Riddell combining with Ash Hardy and Lauren Close.

A match up to watch in the mid court will be Shelby Strong and Tarryn Munro.

The league won't know too much about Munro but she's a smart player who uses her body well.

It will be a good test for both teams.

Prediction: It is hard to go past Diggers Rest after their performance on ANZAC day.

Romsey vs Lancefield

Both of these teams will be looking to record their first win of 2021.

Romsey were missing several players for their night game with Woodend Heskett and really struggled.

Lancefield on the other hand looked unsettled in their first hit out against Wallan.

Lancefield will be much better for the run and we expect them to bounce back this weekend.

Kira Baldwin was a shining light for Lancefield and was named best on court in their loss.

Michelle Rix has plenty of option to use in attack and hopefully they can find a combination that works this weekend.

Prediction: Lancefield to win in a close game.

Wallan vs Western Rams

It is hard to see Wallan losing a game at this stage of the competition.

Chris Cameron will be loving life with the combination of Chloe Meaulenmeesters and Tahnysha Salanoa in goals and another strong performance from defenders Gemma Grimmond and Georgia Bowkett.

Wallan have been knocking on the door of being the real deal for a while now and this season looks like it could be there year if they can keep their team on the court.

We know the class of Salanoa and that was again on show last week as she shot at 100 percent.

Unfortunately for the Western Rams they just don't have the depth across the court.

The Western Rams will certainly be competitive but it is hard to see them taking the points from the white-hot Wallan.

Prediction: Wallan to remain undefeated after three rounds.

Melton Centrals vs Woodend Heskett

Woodend Heskett will be confident they have what it takes to defeat Melton Centrals on their home court after an impressive shooting display led them to victory last Saturday.

Woodend Heskett had all three goalers shooting above 80 percent.

We have known since round one their team is capable but the difference between winning and losing from round 1 to round 2 was definitely their conversion.

Megan Grbac was more at home in her second outing for the Hawks as was Laura Carland.

Melton Centrals weren't as convincing in attack shooting just 22 goals from their 35 attempts.

Melton Centrals will need to be a lot better if they are to compete with the Hawks in round three.

Prediction: Hawks to make it two consecutive wins.
