ACROSS MY DESK

by General Manager Operations Grace Bibby

It's a challenge for all coaches, and not just at the local level to start the game well.

What can we do to help our players ensure they're switched on and ready to put strong netball out on court in the opening minutes of a game all the while containing their adrenaline or pre game jitters.

Here are a few simple ideas

BUILD THROUGH THE WARM-UP

This is arguably the most common contributing factor in teams that consistently start games slowly – they're simply not ready to go, and it all stems from the pre-game warm-up.

Does your team spend the first 10 minutes of warm-up chatting, doing their exercises at half-pace and stretching poorly, followed by more chatting while they warm up their kicking and then eventually lifting their heart rate a little when they move into a team drill?

If players have barely broken a sweat in warm-up, how do we then expect them to step out on court and instantly go from 0 to 100?

Try thinking of your warm-up as an extension of the game – the first of five quarters. Build the intensity through the warm-up, aiming to hit close to match intensity (both physically and in voice) in the last five minutes before the players step on the ground.

Encourage your players to get to the venue five minutes earlier and get their chatting out of the way before warm-up starts. Once you're in warm-up mode, try to ensure that any chat is game-specific.

As the coach responsible for a group of young players, it's up to you to set the tone.

MIX IT UP

While there's certainly value in having a set, structured team warm-up, changing up a drill or two every so often is a good way to ensure players aren't just going through the motions every week.

Add a different drill towards the end of the warm-up that they can perform well but also challenges them to think, and see if it helps them switch on.

GOALERS TAKE RESPONSIBILITY

Have you ever felt like you're dominating defensively and in general play during the first quarter of a game, but the scoreboard doesn't reflect it?

If your last line aren't arriving early to have shots for 10 minutes before the game (and practising throughout the week) don't expect them to be red hot right out of the gate.

HAVE A SET PLAY

Ever had a team you have coached who had a habit of always conceding 3-4 goals before they'd finally wake up and put one on the board.

Sick of trying everything during warm-up, to no avail, but the solution turned out to be having a strong set play on the centre to start each game (or even each quarter)..

ENCOURAGE YOUR PLAYERS TO THINK

Often there's a good chance your players will know some of their opposition, and particularly later in the season once you've already played most teams.

Before the game, ask your players to tell you something about the other team or an opponent they might be playing on – a strength they'll need to combat or a weakness they can look to exploit.

PRACTICE THOSE GOOD STARTS

While it can be hard to replicate your match night at training, finishing a session with some matchplay scenarios that replicate the start of a game i

This is definitely one for the coaches and we hope you have found it useful.

RDFNL Senior Mens Previews

By Grace Bibby

What a contest this will be. Macedon were on the verge of the most unlikely upset during the fourth quarter against Riddell but they were unable to get over the top. Kyneton on the other end looked all but done being four goals down with 10 minutes to go in the fourth against Diggers Rest.

Tigers had a never say die attitude and with that took it to extra time.

It was 10 goalless minutes for the crowd to endure but Kyneton spectators were able to celebrate two minor scores and a place in the preliminary finals.

Not only is it against their cross town rivals it is also on their home deck.

Kyneton young star Harry Ryan was our player of the week last week and there wasn't a single person at Gilbert Gordon last weekend that wasn't talking about "Flying Ryan".

His ability to compete in the air and his sticky hands make him a tough match up. Jason and Brad Cooke are equally challenging to defend in the Macedon forward line.

In the middle of the ground Charlie Rossetti has arguably been the recruit of the season while Hayden Smith from the Tigers has been part of their late charge. Hamish Govan and Caleb Fisher will likely go head to head in the middle of the ground and Danny Grmusa is hard to miss with cries of "Moose" every time he touches the football.

In defence Blake Watson is having an outstanding year for the Cats and the skipper of Kyneton Harry Huntley will be putting it all on the line.

This should be a cracking contest in front of a very vocal crowd.

Prediction: Macedon have enjoyed the match up against Kyneton in recent outings and Kyneton may have already played not one but two grand finals during this finals series.

TACKLE YOUR FEELINGS

‘Be a Champ’

- Tackle Your Feelings ambassador Nathan Buckley and social media larrikins the Shepmates have teamed up to create a humorous video celebrating local football club culture and encouraging players and coaches to help support the mental health of their footy mates
- Watch the video
- As part of the campaign, Tackle Your Feelings is looking to celebrate and recognise those local ‘champs’ who go above and beyond when it comes to investing in mental health
- Being referred to as a ‘champ’ is not always cast in a positive way, so Tackle Your Feelings is looking to reclaim the phrase and spin it around to celebrate these people who often don’t get the recognition they deserve with the role they play at their clubs
- We want players, coaches, committee members, support staff and umpires to be a champ and book their club in for a Tackle Your Feelings workshop
- Clubs can register for a workshop at tyfo.tackleyourfeelings.org.au/login/.

Adam Baldwin, Program Manager said:
 “Clubs are beginning to understand their responsibility to create an environment which supports the mental health of their players. We want clubs to prioritise mental health in the same way they currently do physical health. Tackle Your Feelings is a free program that can help clubs kick-start the development of their own mental health game plan.”

Book a @tyf_au workshop today.

What is Tackle Your Feelings?

- Tackle Your Feelings is a FREE mental health program for community football/netball clubs
- The program was formed by the AFL Coaches Association, AFL Players’ Association and Zurich Insurance in 2018 following the death of Adelaide coach Phil Walsh
- The program is delivered by a local psychologist and aims to help participants gain the tools to Understand, Recognise and Respond to signs of mental ill-health.
- The program is based on the education delivered to the AFL industry and is led by high-profile player and coach ambassadors
- Since 2019, the TYF program has been delivered to more than 10,000 participants in every Australian state and territory and it’s available to your club in 2024
- Quote from TYF ambassador Nathan Buckley: “It’s an awesome program. It’s so succinct and gives you really good strategies... it’s a really good conversation starter.”

Another incredible weekend for football and netball finals last week. Some of the best football and netball you could hope to see and if you aren't entertained by now you never will be. On Sunday our B and D grade sides played in Semi-Finals at Woodend. The girls from D Grade were up against it taking on the Giants who had finished 2nd on the ladder and beaten our girls twice by fairly comfortable margins each time. No one told our girls though because they bounced out of the blocks and took it right up to the Giants. In a tight game the Tigers led for most of the game. The Giants, to their credit though, came back late and in a thrilling contest drew level as the buzzer sounded. The game went into extra time and although there still wasn't much between them the Giants held a 2 goal advantage at the end of extra time. Your only hope going into a final is to play your best on the day and our D Grade team certainly produced that on the day.

Later in the day our B Grade girls took on Melton Centrals. The Melton girls bought their A game and matched Lancefield around the court which, combined with their accurate shooting, saw them inch ahead at each break. The Tigers were staring at an exit from the finals at three quarter time being 2 goals down. The Tigers were having trouble with their shooting accuracy while Melton were on song. That turned around in the last quarter with the shooters starting to find their range and string goals together. The more the game went on the more the Tigers found their rhythm and despite there being little between the 2 sides for the first 3 quarters in the final quarter we outscored in the Centrals 17-10 to record a 5 goal win 56-51. This week our B Grade girls get another shot at a Grand Final taking on Romsey at 11:45am on Saturday at Kyneton. Good luck girls!

Presentation Night: The Lancefield FNC Presentation night takes place this Saturday at the Lancefield Mechanics Institute. We'll have a gourmet 2 course dinner provided by the chefs at Lancefield Hotel, all the awards and vote counts for each side and finish it off with a live band. Good luck to all our contenders.

After the events of last week we took a moment to think of the two policemen who lost their lives in the line of duty and their families, friends and colleagues. We showed our support for all members of Victoria Police by wearing blue armbands.

It was a fantastic weekend of football and netball for the RDFNL, with very close results in trying conditions for most games. Our Reserves and 19 & Under netballers both achieved fantastic wins on Saturday at Romsey and our now preparing for their Grand Final at Romsey. On Sunday both our A & C Grade netball teams played at Woodend, unfortunately both weren't able to secure a win, with A Grade losing by the narrowest of margins, 1goal and C Grade loosing by a mere 3 goals. Both team have had an excellent season and made great progress throughout the last season. Thank you to everyone who has supported the teams throughout the season, particularly their coaches, Lucas Bennett-Hullin, Genevieve Carboon & Emma Stalenberg and our wonderful Netball Co-ordinator Jenni Wood .

On Sunday we had a very busy day at Woodend running the canteen, BBQ and making coffees. Thank you very much to the Woodend Heskett FNC for your hospitality and support in the lead up to and throughout the day. Thank you to everyone who volunteered their time and helped to make the day a great success.

Good luck this weekend to all players, coaches and officials.

VIC KIDS EAT WELL

Join the movement

It's lunch time and our partners Macedon Ranges Health have a program they want to share with us all. Vic Kids Eat Well is an exciting new state-wide movement to boost healthy eating in Victoria so kids can thrive. It's working with schools, sports clubs and other community organisations to:

-  Refresh the fridge
-  Switch up the snacks
-  Change up the menu
-  Put the 'fun' into fundraising and marketing

What snacks are you eating today?

Learn how you can join the movement here:

NETBALL MANAERS REPORT

by General Manager Operations Grace Bibby

always thank a lot of people as the season comes to an end but this year I want to dedicate my entire Managers report to the one and only Krissy Clement.

Krissy is an incredible person and while you see her on the courts most weekends what you do not see is her support of the RDFNL across juniors and seniors and for many years. Krissy has been umpiring in the league and collecting her season passes for the more than two decades,

She never complains, if someone can't do their appointment Krissy is the first to move and she is one of the few umpires who do not request certain venues or teams.

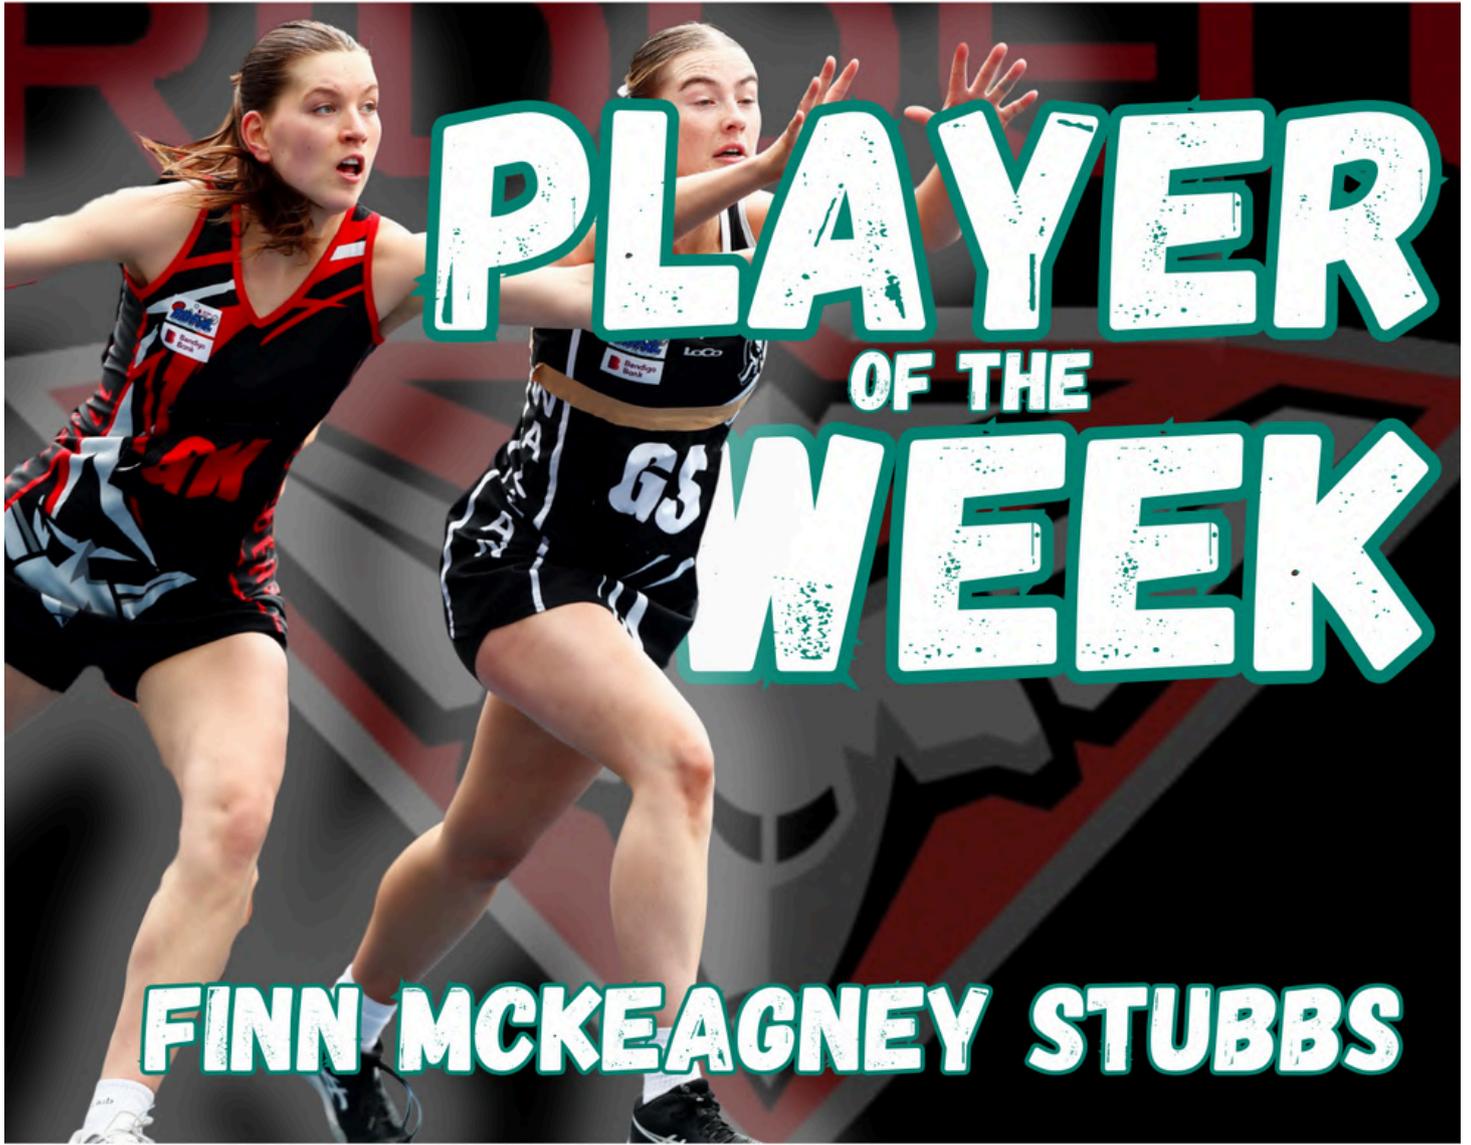

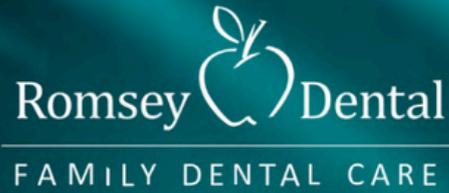

Every week she turns up, she has a smile on her face and she is fair.

Behind the scenes she listens to me vent about my days, is always a pillar of support and an impartial opinion for me to bounce ideas off.

Krissy is one the best RDFNL people and would be up there with the longest serving and it is my absolute pleasure to share my final days eating snacks, talking dribble and most importantly discussing ways in which we can continue to grow this great competition in our region.

Sure Krissy may miss the odd footwork call, or maybe the ball didnt come off your hand and she said it did but I promise you this woman is trying her absolutely best and thanks why we love her like we do! If you see Krissy today at Kyneton give her some love.

Got get em Krissy!

RDFNL Netball Previews

By Grace Bibby

It was an ugly game to watch last week for Macedon and Woodend Hesket but the Cats would have been content with getting within four goals of the minor premiers.

Macedon lost Caitlyn Alifraco who is pivotal for the composure through the middle.

The injury also meant Molly McGrath who was a fast starter for the Cats was forced to move into wing attack.

Like the Cats Riddell will also be missing some key players.

After a strong win over Wallan in the dying stages it was Finn McKeagney Stubbs who shone through with a player of the week performance and a desperate intercept to secure the win, will miss the remainder of the season as she jets off to Europe.

Naomi Fitzpatrick will make the move into defence to cover her absence. Macedon will also be without Claire Oakley for a large percentage of the game as she heads to play finals for Springbank.

Both teams throughout the season have shown patches of great netball and patches where they have caused costly turnovers.

Both teams will be desperate to book their spot in the grand final.

It wasn't long ago these teams met in a preliminary final and it went the distance and Riddell got the job done in extra time.

Lets hope for another clean contest that goes down to the wire as this game did in 2024.

Prediction: Macedon will lead early but Riddell have come from behind many times this season and will fight back to get the win and progress through to the grand final.
