ACROSS MY DESK

by Football Operations Cameron Pope

As we look ahead to this weekend's senior football action, here's what's on the slate across the RDFNL:

Macedon Seniors vs Romsey Seniors
Lancefield Seniors vs Woodend-Hesket Seniors
Melton Centrals Seniors vs Diggers Rest Seniors
Riddell Seniors vs Wallan Seniors
Gisborne Giants Seniors vs Melton South Seniors

The Senior RDFNL Women's Finals Series kicks off this week with two massive finals: Macedon vs Lancefield Riddell vs Mt Alexander Falcons

Best of luck to all competing teams.

I would also like to give a huge congratulations to a number of teams for their performances throughout the year:

- Macedon, for the second year in a row, have remained unbeaten in the regular season—a feat that some would think is unattainable and one that highlights their talent and team culture. Best of luck to them on the weekend.

- Riddell, in their inaugural season in the league, have qualified for finals—a tremendous effort. It showcases their talented pool of female participants, and we only hope it continues to grow from here.

- Romsey, who went from 0 wins in 2024 to 4 wins this season. All players and officials involved should be incredibly proud of what they've achieved. I wish them the very best for next season and beyond.

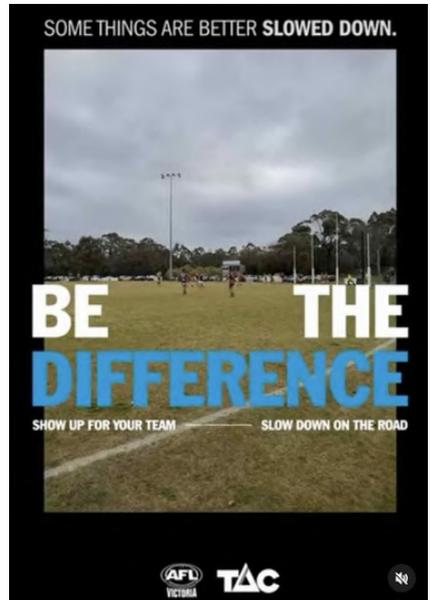

- Mt Alexander, who have now made the finals after falling just short in previous years.

From 2 wins in 2023, to 5 in 2024, and now 6 wins in 2025—this steady improvement shows they are on the right track to challenge for a Premiership. Best of luck during their finals campaign.

- Lancefield—from second bottom and just 2 wins last year to finishing second and now just one win away from a Grand Final. Regardless of what happens in finals, the Tigers should hold their heads high and be proud of what they've achieved this season. Best of luck to them as well in their finals run.

Good luck to all teams this weekend—finals footy has arrived!

Thankyou to those who supported TAC Road Safety Round last weekend.

RDFNL Senior Mens Previews

By Cameron Pope

With just three weeks remaining in the RDFNL home-and-away season, this Round 16 showdown between Macedon and Romsey shapes as a finals-defining clash for both clubs. Macedon currently sit in 6th spot, but their hold is far from secure. A loss here could see the Cats drop out of the finals picture altogether. A win on the other hand would see the Cats leapfrog both Romsey and Kyneton into fourth spot. Romsey, sitting 5th and equal on points with Kyneton (who have the bye), have won two on the trot and are starting to hit their stride at the right time of year. A third consecutive win here would see them rise to fourth and build a valuable buffer over the teams below. All eyes will be on the midfield duel between Macedon's Blake Watson and Romsey's Nathan Rayment. Watson is averaging 27 disposals and just under a goal per game, while Rayment has been equally dangerous with 24 touches and two goals a game. Both are sure to be an eye catcher for the crowd as they both look to steer their side to victory. With both sides having a bye in Round 17, expect Macedon and Romsey to stop at nothing to secure the four points.

Prediction: Macedon to secure a very important win over the Redbacks..

As the curtain begins to fall on the 2025 RDFNL season for Lancefield and Woodend-Hesket, expect both sides to leave nothing in the tank in this Round 16 battle. Lancefield may not be playing finals footy this year, but the improvement across the board has been evident. The Tigers have taken significant strides in 2025, with their young core continuing to develop and gel. Last week's result against Romsey saw them kick just two goals, but in slippery, difficult conditions, their contested work and defensive pressure showed a new level of maturity. Expect them to bring that same fire to their home turf this weekend. For Woodend-Hesket, it's been a season that mirrors 2024 in terms of results. A 13-point lead at three-quarter time against the undefeated Diggers Rest last week turned heads, even if they couldn't quite hold on. That performance, along with two wins and two tight losses to much more fancied opponents over the last four rounds has shown that while the ladder may not reflect it, this team is heading into Lancefield in some good form.

Prediction: Woodend-Hesket to be too strong.

RDFNL Senior Mens Previews

By Cameron Pope

Diggers Rest survived an almighty scare from Woodend-Hesket last week which just may be enough to show the rest of the competition that the Burra aren't invincible. A win for Diggers Rest will see them lock in a top two spot and the all-important double chance in Finals. Melton Centrals have shown glimpses of shine mainly through elite individual performances from Brancatisano and Kerbatieh and you can expect they'll be reliant on these individuals if they want to be competitive against Diggers Rest. The last time these teams met, Diggers Rest defeated Centrals comprehensively by 79 points in what was a 1-sided affair. Expect a result slightly more in favour of Melton Centrals but still 4 points to the Burra. Prediction: Diggers Rest by plenty rounds, could potentially see them leap into 2nd spot and earn that crucial finals edge. Riddell will be fresh and focused, knowing they've got the bye next week, but that also adds a layer of pressure as they can't afford to let one slip before their break. Wallan, on the other hand, will be throwing everything at this one with no time to waste in their pursuit of a top two finish. These sides last met in Round 2, and it was all Riddell on that occasion. The Bombers dominated from start to finish, eventually running out 44-point winners in a statement performance. Wallan will no doubt still remember that game and will be out to prove they've come a long way since then. Prediction: Riddell to stand tall at home and lock in a top 2 finish.

Gisborne Giants will be eager to sign off with a strong showing in front of their home fans. A third win for the year would give the club a massive boost for a young, developing side. For Melton South, this clash means everything. They haven't banked a win since Round 10, and with the race for the top six intensifying, they cannot afford to let another opportunity slip. Prediction: Melton South are in a must win situation to make finals and they will.

A win for Riddell would lock in a top two finish and the valuable double chance that comes with it, putting them three games clear of the chasing Magpies. For Wallan, they know that a win this week, followed by victories in the next two

TACKLE YOUR FEELINGS

‘Be a Champ’

- Tackle Your Feelings ambassador Nathan Buckley and social media larrikins the Shepmates have teamed up to create a humorous video celebrating local football club culture and encouraging players and coaches to help support the mental health of their footy mates
- Watch the video
- As part of the campaign, Tackle Your Feelings is looking to celebrate and recognise those local ‘champs’ who go above and beyond when it comes to investing in mental health
- Being referred to as a ‘champ’ is not always cast in a positive way, so Tackle Your Feelings is looking to reclaim the phrase and spin it around to celebrate these people who often don’t get the recognition they deserve with the role they play at their clubs
- We want players, coaches, committee members, support staff and umpires to be a champ and book their club in for a Tackle Your Feelings workshop
- Clubs can register for a workshop at tyfo.tackleyourfeelings.org.au/login/.

Adam Baldwin, Program Manager said: “Clubs are beginning to understand their responsibility to create an environment which supports the mental health of their players. We want clubs to prioritise mental health in the same way they currently do physical health. Tackle Your Feelings is a free program that can help clubs kick-start the development of their own mental health game plan.”

Book a @tyf_au workshop today.

What is Tackle Your Feelings?

- Tackle Your Feelings is a FREE mental health program for community football/netball clubs
- The program was formed by the AFL Coaches Association, AFL Players’ Association and Zurich Insurance in 2018 following the death of Adelaide coach Phil Walsh
- The program is delivered by a local psychologist and aims to help participants gain the tools to Understand, Recognise and Respond to signs of mental ill-health.
- The program is based on the education delivered to the AFL industry and is led by high-profile player and coach ambassadors
- Since 2019, the TYF program has been delivered to more than 10,000 participants in every Australian state and territory and it’s available to your club in 2024
- Quote from TYF ambassador Nathan Buckley: “It’s an awesome program. It’s so succinct and gives you really good strategies... it’s a really good conversation starter.”

Club Notes

This week we are thanking Sopranos Pizza Bar in Gisborne, plus the Town Planning People for their support of the Giants in 2025.

Last weekend was wet and wild up at Kyneton, and we came away with some mixed results. Terrific results in the football reserves, and across in the netball with the 19's, C grade, B grade and A grade all having wins. Unfortunately our 19.5 and seniors in the footy, and D grade went down. We spent last week raising awareness of the TAC campaign to be safe on the roads, with all players wearing the armbands. Congratulations to our Giants representing Salesian who had a great win during the week. Next game they'll be up against Scotch College in the Semi Finals.

This week we welcome Melton South!

LANCEFIELD

Club Notes

Here we go Tigers! Our mighty Lancefield Womens footy team hit the finals for the first time this weekend when they take on the undefeated Macedon for a spot in the Grand Final after finishing 2nd on the ladder. What a joy to watch this team has been, not just for the fact they are in the finals but particularly for the culture and camaraderie they have built. This is a special group and they represent everything that is good about team sport. Good luck girls, enjoy the spoils of your hard work. We know you'll do us proud!

Reverse Raffle – Sunday August 17:

Normally we hold this after the last home game as a bit of a break up day. This year however the women's footy Grand Final falls on that night so, with Lancefield in contention, we've moved it to the following day to give everyone the chance to get to the Grand Final if we make it. We'll hold it now on the Sunday afternoon so no need for a late night. There's nothing like a chilled out Sunday arvo session so you can hop into a catered lunch, included beer, wine & soft drinks for 3 hours, entertainment and the chance to win $5,000 all for just $65 per head. Tickets available from the bar at our next 2 home games or from players.

Presentation Night – Saturday September 6:

Again something different this year. We're bringing it in-house so everyone doesn't have the problem of driving home. This year we'll tizz up the hall and hold it in the Mechanics Institute. Expect a night of glitz and glamour, good entertainment, food and drink. Tickets will however be strictly limited so when they come on sale be quick! Keep an eye on the socials for more details over the coming weeks.

Join the movement

It's lunch time and our partners Macedon Ranges Health have a program they want to share with us all. Vic Kids Eat Well is an exciting new state-wide movement to boost healthy eating in Victoria so kids can thrive. It's working with schools, sports clubs and other community organisations to:

-  Refresh the fridge
-  Switch up the snacks
-  Change up the menu
-  Put the 'fun' into fundraising and marketing

What snacks are you eating today?

Learn how you can join the movement here:

RDFNL Senior Womens Previews

By Cameron Pope

We kick things off with a blockbuster Qualifying Final between Macedon and Lancefield. Macedon enters the finals series as the undisputed benchmark, going through the 2025 home-and-away season undefeated for the second consecutive season. With reigning league Best and Fairest Ruby Watts at the helm, the Cats are gunning for a third straight Grand Final appearance and the opportunity for back-to-back Premierships. Standing in their way is one of the stories of the season in Lancefield. After a challenging 2024 campaign where the Tigers won just two games, Lancefield have flipped the script entirely in 2025. With leaders like Alice Bromley and Abbie Sarginson inspiring a new standard, Lancefield has not only climbed the ladder but cemented themselves as a genuine contender. The Tigers have brought pressure, belief, and unforgiving attack on the football throughout the season and they'll have to bring their absolute best if they are to take down the Macedon juggernaut. The two sides are no strangers this year, having already faced off three times but, finals footy can bring surprises, and Lancefield's rise suggests they won't back down easily especially with a chance at a maiden Grand Final appearance on the line.

Prediction: Macedon, on their home deck and with finals experience under their belt should have enough to hold off a spirited Lancefield challenge.

Both teams finished the regular season with six wins apiece, but Riddell's percentage saw them lock in third place, while Mt Alexander scraped into the four following a must-win game against Melton last week. Riddell, in their inaugural season in the RDFNL Women's competition, have made an immediate impact. Sitting in second place for most of the year, a tough run in the final month saw them narrowly miss the double chance. But with talent like Molly Connell, Mady Brown and Ruby Taranto steering the ship, the Bombers will be looking to stamp their authority and show the league that not only do they belong in finals, they can make a deep run and contend for a Premiership. Mt Alexander, meanwhile, arrive with momentum. Last week's star, Tash Ross-Harris, was unstoppable and looms as a major threat again, with Lou Napolitano expected to provide the spark. These two sides are split 1-1 from their matchups this season.

Prediction: Riddell at home will be just too much for the Falcons. Riddell by 8 points.

NETBALL MANAERS REPORT

by General Manager Operations Grace Bibby

I remember standing on the netball court as a young girl, laces tied tight, heart pounding, eyes scanning the court like it was a battlefield. There weren't thousands of people watching. There wasn't even a scoreboard that worked half the time. But what we lacked in fanfare, we made up for in fire.

Today, that same fire is blazing trails across stadiums, screens, and the hearts of millions. Women's sport—especially netball and football—is no longer waiting on the sidelines. We're front and centre, taking the game to new heights with skill, strength, and unapologetic ambition.

Netball has always been a sport dominated by women, but it's only recently that the world has started to pay proper attention. Fast-paced, strategic, and fiercely competitive, netball demands not only athleticism but unity. You win together or not at all.

I've played in rain, heat, and heartbreak. I've seen women push through injuries, juggle full-time jobs, children and still show up, game-ready. That's the spirit of netball—quietly resilient, often underestimated, but unstoppable when in motion. And now, leagues like RDFNL are giving these warriors the platforms they've long deserved.

Sport gives women more than just physical strength—it builds confidence, leadership, mental toughness. It teaches us how to fail, how to rise, how to fight for what we believe in.

Girls in sport grow into women who speak up, take charge, and defy limits. And we need more of them—on the pitch, in boardrooms, in politics, in life.

To Every Girl Watching

Whether you're passing a netball in the park or kicking a football on the street—know this: You belong. You're strong. And the game needs you.

So, lace up. Take the shot. Break the silence. Make the noise. Because we're not just playing anymore.

We're winning.

Come celebrate with me on September 3rd, 2025.

Both teams come into this one in good form. Wallan recorded a one goal win over Macedon in a tight tussle while Riddell also recorded a one goal win against Melton Centrals. It is a strong indication of where the competition is at and how exciting this finals series will be. Wallan after a slow start have surged up the leader board in recent weeks.

Maeve Donegan is playing some good netball and will be hoping to out score Bec Colwell who is in similar form for Riddell.

In the mid court the battle between Gen Carboon and Brianna DeHaas or Mady Brown will be good to watch.

Riddell have got several players who may be saving their energy or even distracted by the up coming football finals campaign.

Wallan have a way of sneaking up and going through the season unnoticed but they are ready to do some damage this season.

Prediction: Riddell to win this one but with zero confidence.

It is hard to get a gauge on either of these teams as they have a new look line up each week.

Mia Daly has been one of very few to play most games for the Tigers and will be the key to the Tigers mid court while Hayley Rogers will look to counteract every opportunity.

Jessica Martin has been a good inclusion to the Hawks line up this year from the junior and along with Georgia Bowkett will no doubt make scoring hard.

Lancefield look set to really be a challenger early this season and although they have slipped a win here would see them lock away a finals berth. Woodend Hesket seem to roll players in and out and have barely been challenged this season.

As the finals get closer the competition will tighten and there is no way the opposition are making this threepeat easy.

Prediction: Woodend Hesket to win comfortably

RDFNL Netball Previews

By Grace Bibby

As we all know injuries can come at crucial times and last week after having a good run the Cats were withing several of their attacking end.

Going down by one goal would have been disappointed but the good news for the Cats is Molly McGrath is relishing more opportunity in attack. Last week Chloe Eyre, Claire Oakley and Hetty Donohue were all missing.

Romsey would have been disappointed they weren't more competition again Lancefield. This is a good opportunity for both clubs to bounce back and stay in touch with finals.

Prediction: Macedon to win the must win game.

Gisborne Giants have had glimpses of brilliance all season but have had moment of vulnerability as well. This is a good week for them to try some things and see what needs more work or attention prior to finals.

Olvia Craske has been a strong performer as has Emma Vitalone.

Prediction: Gisborne Giants to record another strong win.

Melton Centrals will be disappointed in the final result of last weekends game against Riddell. They would have been so proud of their first half efforts to lead by 10 goals at half time but to let the four points go begging would hurt. They will be able to use that as they look to get back on the winners list against Diggers Rest.

Diggers Rest also havent won a game for some time now and will be hungry for a win before a tough run home.

Melton Centrals have many young superstars who will relish this weekend.

Prediction: Melton Centrals to get the four points over a depleted Diggers Rest.

We do not want to keep harping on about the season that they would love to forget at Melton South. We know they are struggling and with low numbers it is not going to be any easier for them this weekend.
