ACROSS MY DESK

by General Manager Operations Grace Bibby

Finals make for some interesting lessons on leadership and performance, and these apply equally to business and life overall.

Last week, I had the chance to observe first hand the dynamics of winning and losing at the RDFNL Senior Finals.

Whereas the early rounds of competition were about separating out the more talented teams from the less, the later rounds were all about the differences in their ability to perform under pressure. That's where it got really interesting. As we watched equally talented teams either wilt under the pressure or rise to the occasion, the word that kept cropping up from the players themselves to the coaches and also my fellow spectators was: composure. This seemed to encapsulate the difference between winning and losing at the top level of the competition and even more so on Sunday for our Elimination Finals.

So how do we define composure? The dictionary says it is a "serene, self-controlled state of mind; calmness; tranquillity." In the context of finals level competition, it means the ability to keep a cool head and perform to your full potential under pressure; it's about being able to make and execute on the same decisions in the same way when under pressure as when there is no pressure at all.

We saw teams get frazzled and fall apart as the competition got tougher ("they didn't keep their composure") whereas they had played as a well-oiled unit earlier in the season. We watched individual players work hard to get the ball up the court and finally break free but the goalers weren't able to convert and we saw defenders create turn overs and then give it straight back while others seemed to revel in the intensity of the moment and make heroic shots and come up with intercepts against all odds.

Imagine what we could achieve if each of us could be so much in our element when the going gets tough – if our environment could have no adverse effect on our performance at that crucial client meeting or when speaking in front of hundreds of our peers. So how do we improve our composure?

1. Stay Passionate but Don't Allow Your Emotions to Get in the Way
2. Keep a Positive Mental Attitude
3. Remain Courageous
4. Take Accountability

It's easy to lose composure during finals especially if you let concern turn into worry and worry turn into fear. By maintaining composure, the best leaders remain calm, cool and in control – enabling them to step back, critically evaluate the cards that they have been dealt and face problems head-on. A show of composure also puts those you lead at ease and creates a safe and secure culture where no one needs to panic when the heat is on.

We are looking forward to being on the sidelines again this weekend to see which teams and individuals will stand up under pressure.

Please remember everyone is entitled to an opinion but if it may insult someone else please keep it to yourself.

We want RDFNL to be a safe place for people to enjoy netball as players, coaches, umpires and spectators.

RDFNL Senior Mens Previews

By Grace Bibby

It was an impressive performance that see Riddell now the premierships favourites. They didn't just win against Diggers Rest in the opening week of finals but they dismantled them and sent a message to the rest of the competition. Riddell got plenty of the ball early and looked to be clearing it from the centre with ease.

The game was all but over within a couple of minutes due to the early dominance. Macedon were also strong from the first bounce with Jason Cooke proving once again he is one of the best big game players in the league.

Blake Watson has also had a fantastic year and wasn't challenged by the big stage nerves.

The match up in the middle of the ground between Rossetti and Grabham will be crucial.

Grabham also comes into this week after featuring on the ultimate ressie during the week which he would have been very proud of.

Macedon finished fifth and after results went their way they get a free swing at Riddell with a second chance.

Prediction: Macedon to challenge but Riddell to come out on top and book their spot in the big dance.

These two teams couldn't be further apart with their preparation. Diggers Rest come in with a long list of injuries and the mindset following three tough losses to round out the season and start finals. Kyneton are chock full of confidence after a reasonably dominant display over third placed Wallan last weekend.

Kyneton have a young group with plenty of energy. Harry Ryan is a walking highlight reel while Angus Nolte took a hanger and kicked a bag showing he has what it takes at any level.

Diggers Rest will get some experienced strong players back with the likes of Jaidyn Caruana and Mitch Day expected to return.

Diggers Rest have looked very uncertain in the last month and their inability to put any resistance on the Riddell midfield was concerning.

They will need to turn their midfield woes around in quick time to keep their season alive.

Prediction: Kyneton to cause another big upset and send Diggers Rest out of the 2025 finals series in straight sets.

TACKLE YOUR FEELINGS

‘Be a Champ’

- Tackle Your Feelings ambassador Nathan Buckley and social media larrikins the Shepmates have teamed up to create a humorous video celebrating local football club culture and encouraging players and coaches to help support the mental health of their footy mates
- Watch the video
- As part of the campaign, Tackle Your Feelings is looking to celebrate and recognise those local ‘champs’ who go above and beyond when it comes to investing in mental health
- Being referred to as a ‘champ’ is not always cast in a positive way, so Tackle Your Feelings is looking to reclaim the phrase and spin it around to celebrate these people who often don’t get the recognition they deserve with the role they play at their clubs
- We want players, coaches, committee members, support staff and umpires to be a champ and book their club in for a Tackle Your Feelings workshop
- Clubs can register for a workshop at tyfo.tackleyourfeelings.org.au/login/.

Adam Baldwin, Program Manager said:
 “Clubs are beginning to understand their responsibility to create an environment which supports the mental health of their players. We want clubs to prioritise mental health in the same way they currently do physical health. Tackle Your Feelings is a free program that can help clubs kick-start the development of their own mental health game plan.”

Book a @tyf_au workshop today.

What is Tackle Your Feelings?

- Tackle Your Feelings is a FREE mental health program for community football/netball clubs
- The program was formed by the AFL Coaches Association, AFL Players’ Association and Zurich Insurance in 2018 following the death of Adelaide coach Phil Walsh
- The program is delivered by a local psychologist and aims to help participants gain the tools to Understand, Recognise and Respond to signs of mental ill-health.
- The program is based on the education delivered to the AFL industry and is led by high-profile player and coach ambassadors
- Since 2019, the TYF program has been delivered to more than 10,000 participants in every Australian state and territory and it’s available to your club in 2024
- Quote from TYF ambassador Nathan Buckley: “It’s an awesome program. It’s so succinct and gives you really good strategies... it’s a really good conversation starter.”

It was great to have some finals football and netball in the air as our A grade, C grade, D grade and 19's netball were joined by our 19.5's football in finals action. Wins went to C grade, 19's netball and 19.5's footy, with narrow losses to both D grade and A grade. Sadly that brings our A grade netball campaign to an end for our first season.

Excitingly, on Saturday at Romsey we will have our 19.5's footy, 19's and C grade netball all playing for a spot in the Grand Final. On Sunday we have D grade playing at Woodend for a spot in the preliminary final.

Thank you to all of our volunteers that assisted last Saturday as we ran the canteen and BBQ at Romsey. It was a big day but it brings in vital funds for our club.

Last reminder for Senior Presentation Night, please book your tickets as soon as possible. For any aspiring coaches, please see our Junior expression of interest form which closes soon.

LANCEFIELD

Club Notes

What a great weekend for finals last week, the sun was shining and the footy and netball was great. Three Lancefield teams played last week. On Saturday our 2nd placed B grade team ran into a red hot Riddell outfit. It wasn't to be for us going down 52-37. Our girls have earned the double chance though so they take on Centrals at Woodend on Sunday at 11:20am. Good luck girls!

On Sunday our A and D grade netballers played in the Elimination finals. The D grade girls kicked the day off in style winning their match against Kyneton 38-31. What a fantastic achievement by them in our first ever season with D grade. This weekend they chance their arm against Gisborne Giants at 9am to advance to the next round. That's B and D grade playing at the same venue, same day so get down there and cheer them on. Our A grade girls faced off against Macedon in the Elimination Final. The standard was fantastic around the court, the Tigers going in 4 goals down in an entertaining contest at ¼ time. Macedon converted at a really high rate in the 2nd quarter to open up a gap. It was too much to pull back in the last half but they never gave up at any point eventually going down 56-40. What a great result for the A grade girls! Last year they avoided the wooden spoon by percentage, this year with predominantly the same squad they played finals for the first time in 8 years. Congratulations girls and we can't wait to see what you can do in 2026.

On Sunday Lancefield ran the bar at the Elimination Finals at Diggers Rest. One of the great aspects of the RDFNL is how clubs get to fundraise by running the bar or canteen at each of the finals. This is a really important thing for clubs and many may be unaware that this doesn't happen at all leagues. A big shoutout to Diggers Rest for all their help in getting us set up and making us feel so welcome.

Presentation Night: The Lancefield FNC Presentation night takes place on Saturday September 6th at the Lancefield Mechanics Institute. We've taken on past feedback that players would love it to be held in our town so, with a lot of work required to put it together in a local venue, we're up for the challenge! Check out our socials for the ticket link and be aware tickets are strictly limited. We'll have a gourmet 2 course dinner provided by the chefs at Lancefield Hotel, all the awards and vote counts for each side and finish it off with a live band.

Club Notes

Welcome back to Romsey! What an emphatic win last week against Diggers Rest in the seniors! This week we hope to do the same to the Macedon cats! Mixed bag of results in netball with B grade winning, but A, C & U19's all lost and go into sudden death 1st semi-finals at Woodend on Sunday. Good luck to the undefeated B Grade who will progress to the GF if they win against Romsey on their home court. The Reserves keep winning and move into the 1st semi-final this week against Diggers Rest. A good win considering Melton South beat them during the H&A. Unfortunately, the 3rd's didn't win but what a huge improvement from last year under the guidance of coach Paul Murden. Well done fellas.

Good luck this weekend to the coaches, players and all involved!

A great day was held last Sunday as we hosted our first final for many years! A beautiful day weather wise helped and a cracking game of footy between Kyneton & Wallan was fantastic and exactly what country footy is all about. Well done to Kyneton in winning their first senior final for nearly 30 years. Hopefully we get to host more finals in the near future.

A massive congratulations to our Clubbies who are the 2025 Club 18 premiers! In a great contest our boys put together a strong 4 quarter performance to beat Eynesbury by 9 points last Friday night at Eynesbury. Thank you everyone who has helped out and assisted the team achieve their great win.

Congratulations to Jake Neilson who was awarded the best on ground for the final

Congratulations to all our teams who competed last week. Not all the results went our way with our Senior footballers and B Grade netballers bowing out of the finals race, however our Reserves and Under 19 netballers progressed to the 2nd Semi Final on Saturday and our A Grade and C Grade netballers progressed to the 1st Semi Final Sunday.

Thank you to everyone who helped out at the bar at Romsey on Saturday and everyone who puts their hand up to help with the canteen and BBQ at Woodend on Sunday. Good luck to everyone competing in the finals this weekend. Enjoy the moments!

Club Notes

The Hawks continue their finals campaign with the A grade netballers progressing to the next round! While we're thrilled with this advancement, it's with mixed emotions as we farewell our C Grade and D Grade netball teams who fought valiantly in their elimination finals last weekend. Both teams can hold their heads high after giving their all in what were hard-fought contests.

Our club is incredibly proud of all footballers and netballers who have represented the brown and gold throughout 2025. The commitment and determination shown by all our players across the year, has been outstanding. As we prepare for our next finals challenge, we extend our best wishes to all remaining teams across the competition. The standard of netball and football throughout the finals has been exceptional, showcasing the strength and depth of the RDFNL.

We'd also like to take this opportunity to thank the RDFNL for their outstanding management of what has been a fantastic competition throughout 2025.

A huge thank you to our major sponsors Elements Design and Build, and 2MH Consulting. We can't do what we do without the support of our sponsors who make it possible for our club to provide the facilities and opportunities our players deserve.

VIC KIDS EAT WELL

Join the movement

It's lunch time and our partners Macedon Ranges Health have a program they want to share with us all. Vic Kids Eat Well is an exciting new state-wide movement to boost healthy eating in Victoria so kids can thrive. It's working with schools, sports clubs and other community organisations to:

-  Refresh the fridge
-  Switch up the snacks
-  Change up the menu
-  Put the 'fun' into fundraising and marketing

What snacks are you eating today?

Learn how you can join the movement here:

NETBALL MANAERS REPORT

by General Manager Operations Grace Bibby

I remember standing on the netball court as a young girl, laces tied tight, heart pounding, eyes scanning the court like it was a battlefield. There weren't thousands of people watching. There wasn't even a scoreboard that worked half the time. But what we lacked in fanfare, we made up for in fire.

Today, that same fire is blazing trails across stadiums, screens, and the hearts of millions. Women's sport—especially netball and football—is no longer waiting on the sidelines. We're front and centre, taking the game to new heights with skill, strength, and unapologetic ambition.

Netball has always been a sport dominated by women, but it's only recently that the world has started to pay proper attention. Fast-paced, strategic, and fiercely competitive, netball demands not only athleticism but unity. You win together or not at all.

I've played in rain, heat, and heartbreak. I've seen women push through injuries, juggle full-time jobs, children and still show up, game-ready. That's the spirit of netball—quietly resilient, often underestimated, but unstoppable when in motion. And now, leagues like RDFNL are giving these warriors the platforms they've long deserved.

Sport gives women more than just physical strength—it builds confidence, leadership, mental toughness. It teaches us how to fail, how to rise, how to fight for what we believe in.

Girls in sport grow into women who speak up, take charge, and defy limits. And we need more of them—on the pitch, in boardrooms, in politics, in life.

To Every Girl Watching
 Whether you're passing a netball in the park or kicking a football on the street—know this: You belong. You're strong. And the game needs you.
 So, lace up. Take the shot. Break the silence. Make the noise. Because we're not just playing anymore.
 We're winning.
 Come celebrate us, eith me on September 3rd, 2025.

RDFNL Netball Previews

By Grace Bibby

VS

Like in the football Macedon have been blessed with other results falling their way in the first week of finals and with that will now have a nothing to lose crack at Woodend-Hesket.

Both teams were slick in the first week of finals with Woodend Hesket easily accounted for Riddell and Macedon never headed by Lancefield.

Woodend Hesket were able to adapt to Riddell's game plan and while Tayissa Coppiger was nullified she could not be stopped and Hayley Rogers also dominated the mid court.

Natalie McDonald is arguably the most underrated across the Hawks court.

McDonald does a lot of work and positions well to allow Bec Hicks to play her role.

Interestingly both goal shooters in Hicks and Claire Oakley will have to toss up which team they prioritise and their clubs outside of RDFNL also take part in finals.

Macedon will not die wondering here.

Prediction: Woodend Hesket to get a scare but book their spot in the grand final.

Riddell will have to bounce back quickly after a disappointing performance against Woodend Hesket in week 1 of the finals. Riddell looked undisciplined, spending a lot of time out of play and were unable to adjust. Riddell are a slow starting team but they were unlikely to get back into the contest after giving Woodend Hesket such a big head start.

Wallan were also slow starters but their coach backed them in and they turned it around in the second quarter and proceeded to get the win over the higher ranked Gisborne Giants.

These teams met in the preliminary final last year and it was a fierce contest. I would expect similar this weekend. Wallan are the in form team of the competition and will no doubt use the loss last season as motivation.

Wallan will have to get their match up on Bec Colwell and Mady Brown right as they are the two game changers from the Bombers camp. Gen Carboon and Maeve Donegan are much the same for Wallan.

Prediction: Riddell in extra time. This one is going to be awesome.
